4 JP Districts Set Up In County; Salaries Yet To Be Determined

Pickaway County has been divided into four justice of the peace court districts. The action was taken at a meeting of County Commission Chairman William J. Goode, Probate Judge Guy Cline and Common Pleas Judge William D. Radcliff.

The group, known as the Commission on Justice Courts, following a statute adopted by the Ohio Legislature last year, set up the following districts:

- Northeastern — Harrison, Madison and Walnut Townships;
- Southeastern — Washington, Pickaway and Salt Creek Townships;
- Northwestern — Scioto, Darby, Monroe and Muhlenberg Townships;
- Southwestern — Wayne, Deer Creek, Perry and Jackson Townships.

The group also decreed that "there shall be one Justice of the Peace in each district." Since it was noted that only the southeastern district is without a JP; "the clerk of courts is to notify the trustees of . . . (that) . . . district that there is a vacancy which may be filled at the next general election on Nov. 5, 1957."

RECORDS here indicate there are four JP's in the county: Walter Heise, Harrison Township; Percy May, Wayne Township; William J. Miller, Muhlenberg Township; and Nelson Winfough, Monroe Township. However, one question yet to be answered is what to do about the committee's specification of one JP to a district, when there are two in the Northwestern district—Miller and Winfough.

Another item for future consideration will be the setting of salaries for the JP's. This has to be done by the county commissioners. Goode said a final decision on this matter would be delayed for about a week or so "because of several legal problems involved."

As of last Jan. 1, JP's swapped their old "fee system" for a straight salary from the county. Now, all fees, fines and costs collected by sheriffs must be turned over to the county treasury.

The JP fee system has been under fire in Ohio for many years. Many motorists bitterly complained that JP's and their constables throughout the state were running "speed traps" for the purpose of collecting a great number of fees and costs.

The new law permits the commission to consolidate or change JP districts. The group may set the number of justices for each district and may increase or decrease this number.

January Highway Toll Is Record

CHICAGO (AP)—Nearly 3,000 persons were killed in traffic accidents in January, a 5 per cent increase over January 1955.

It was the 11th straight month of increased traffic tolls, the National Safety Council reported. The nation's traffic deaths in the first month of 1956 totaled 2,960 compared with 2,820 in January 1955.

2 Million Americans Get Boost In Their Pay Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—More than two million lower-paid workers got a pay increase today.

The pay hikes came through a boost in the federal minimum wage from 75 cents to $1 an hour. It was voted by Congress last year to become effective today.

An estimated 24 million workers are covered by terms of the Fair Labor Standards Act (generally those engaged or whose work is connected with interstate commerce) but only about 2,100,000 have been making less than the new $1 minimum.

Although the maximum required pay boost could be 25 cents an hour, the Labor Department figured the average increase would be 13 cents an hour, or an estimated $560 million a year. Many of those benefiting have been making more than the old 75-cent minimum, which had been in effect for six years.

Iran Grabs Soviet Spy Secret Documents Found On Attache

TEHRAN (AP)—Iranian agents arrested the Soviet Union's assistant military attache in Tehran last night, saying he was carrying top-secret Iranian military documents and had been "spying for a long time."

Brig. Gen. Teimour Bakhtiar, military governor of Tehran, announced the arrest of the Soviet officer, Maj. Ivanovich Kouznetsoff, and an Iranian officer.

Kouznetsoff was held overnight at the Iranian Foreign Ministry, where he refused to speak or eat. He was turned over to the Soviet Embassy today after his diplomatic status was established. Foreign Minister Ali Gholi Ardalan said the Russian would not have been arrested if he had been carrying his diplomatic credentials.

A Foreign Ministry official said the government would declare the Soviet officer personal non grata (unacceptable) and that he would leave Iran immediately.

BAKHTIAR SAID documents found in Kouznetsoff's pockets included drawings of air force gasoline and ammunition stores, repair and technical units and other secret documents.

"It is now revealed that the Soviet major has been spying for a long time," Bakhtiar said, "making use of Iranian warrant officer Hussein Rejaei Tehrani as his agent in the air force G2 (intelligence) organization."

An army source said Tehrani faces a speedy trial and the death penalty will be asked.

Dems Challenge Ike's Ability To Carry On

Eisenhower Labeled 'Parttime' President By His Opponents

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's assertion that there isn't the slightest doubt he can now perform his duties as well as he ever did drew challenges from some Democrats today.

They said that since his Sept. 24 heart attack he has been a "parttime President" operating through a "regency" which would be ousted by the voters in November.

Reacting to a talk in which Eisenhower told the nation last night he would accept the GOP nomination but would not engage in "whistle-stop" speaking, Democrats spoke of a contrasting vigorous campaign of personal appearances by their nominee.

Speaking to the nation by television and radio, Eisenhower said he is a "recovered heart patient" who doctors say is "as well as before the attack occurred."

"I may possibly be a greater risk than is the normal person of my age (65)," he said with something of a grimace, "but my doctors assure me that this increased percentage of risk is not great."

"AS OF THIS moment," he said, "there is not the slightest doubt that I can now perform, as well as I ever have, all of the important duties of the presidency. This I say because I am actually doing so and have been doing so for many weeks."

Eisenhower said that if he is nominated at the GOP convention in San Francisco in August, a foregone conclusion in the absence of any health setback before then, he will "wage no political campaign in the customary pattern."

In the first place, he said, he (Continued on Page Two)

Ike Hurries To Enter GOP Primary Polls

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today signed statements entering his name in the Republican presidential primaries of Wisconsin and California.

For California, he designated a committee of three to select a slate of 70 Eisenhower delegates to the GOP convention. Members are Vice President Nixon, Sen. William F. Knowland and Gov. Goodwin J. Knight.

For Wisconsin, he certified the 30-member slate of convention delegates headed by Gov. Walter J. Kohler and chosen by the state Republican organization.

The Wisconsin statement must be filed with the Wisconsin secretary of state Wednesday.

Three GOP members of Congress—Reps. John W. Byrnes, Glenn R. Davis and Melvin R. Laird, all members of the slate, will fly the certificate to Madison tonight.

The Wisconsin poll is April 3. The deadline for the California filing is March 7, and Presidential Press Secretary James Hagerty said the statement signed by Eisenhower this morning will be delivered in Sacramento "within 48 hours."

The California primary is on June 5.

Federal Payroll Shows Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)—The federal government's civilian payroll increased by 3,464 in January to reach a total of 2,346,691, the Senate-House Committee on Nonessential Expenditures said today.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), committee chairman, said this was the first monthly increase since last August.

Major increases were reported for the Postoffice, Treasury, Agriculture and Interior departments.

John Q. Public Expresses Opinion On Ike's Decision

WASHINGTON (AP)—Citizen reaction to President Eisenhower's announcement he is available for a second term ranged today from "The best thing for the country" to "doing himself and the country a disfavor."

In between those comments from Mrs. Richard Grable, a Chicago Republican, and John J. Craig, a Montclair, N. J., Democrat, fell others expressing concern for Eisenhower the man and varying opinion on whether he can be reelected.

Many of those interviewed, like Craig, gave important consideration to Eisenhower's physical condition, but Sam Coues, a Concord, N. H., accountant, looked for a different kind of soundness. He said he was "delighted" by the announcement.

"I like to see a man who is morally and spiritually sound as the head of state," said Coues, who did not mention his politics. All spoke out after Eisenhower announced his decision at a news conference, but before he told a nationwide radio-TV audience last night he is "confident that I can carry indefinitely" all important duties of the presidency.

The comment crossed party lines. Mrs. Alice Davis, a Democrat from the Bronx, N. Y., said Eisenhower will win because the people are behind him and "he's the only man the Russians fear."

Thomas J. Patten, a Democrat from Kansas City, Mo., said Eisenhower is "the only man on the scene who can maintain our influence in world affairs." The Rev. C. L. Irwin of Indianapolis said, "His leadership will keep the country on a steady course."

And in Evanston, Ill., William Young, a clothing salesman, said, "they have to do a lot more specific selling on issues this time. I think a lot more people are shopping. Isn't 1952?"

But George O'Connell, Helena, Mont., Democrat, said Eisenhower

has "done a good job; I'll vote for him." Then O'Connell raised a question mentioned by several others—the status of Vice President Nixon.

That is important to Charles Prager of Jackson Heights, N.Y., a 1952 Eisenhower supporter. "If they renominate Nixon," he said, "Eisenhower definitely will not get my vote."

Hazel Shockley, a statehouse elevator operator at Sacramento, Calif., said, "I'd like to see Eisenhower back in, but what about Nixon?"

Identical comments on another angle came from three farmers interviewed at random in the Omaha, Neb., stockyards. Each said Eisenhower didn't keep his pre-election promises to the farmers. They were Verlin Selows, Stromburg, Neb.; Grant Rullestad, Huxley, Iowa; and B. P. Setter, Manilla, Iowa.

Prosecution Ends Testimony In Baldrige Murder Trial

WASHINGTON C. H. (AP)—The state rested its second-degree murder case today in the trial of a farmer accused in connection with the shotgun slaying Nov. 15 of a game protector.

The prosecution completed its case shortly after a gun expert testified the old shotgun which killed the game protector was "in good functioning order" and the safety catch was "not defective."

The testimony came from Joseph Martina, laboratory technician for the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation.

George Baldrige, 63, is accused of murder in the shotgun death of Irvin J. Patrick on the opening day of the 1955 hunting season. Patrick was a native of Pickaway County.

Martina told the jury he had tested Baldrige's 12-gauge shotgun, had shaken it and struck it. He added: "The only way I could get the gun to fire was to pull the trigger."

The state charges Baldrige, a Fayette County farmer and former Adams County sheriff, shot and mortally wounded Patrick when the 43-year-old game protector tried to arrest Baldrige's nephew for possession of illegal hen pheasants. The slaying occurred on the Baldrige farm.

Martina was shown pictures of Patrick's wound today and estimated he was shot from a distance of one to three feet. He added he failed to find Patrick's fingerprints or any other prints on the weapon. The defense claims Patrick seized Baldrige's gun.

Sheriff Orland Hays said Defense Atty. Emory S. Smith of Portsmouth, also a gun expert, had examined the shotgun and termed it "a good gun for an old gun."

Yesterday, Jack Kamman, a state game supervisor, testified he was with Patrick at the time of the shooting. He gave this sequence of events:

Patrick tried to arrest Donald Butler of Seaman for having two illegal birds (hen pheasants) in his possession. Baldrige, Butler's uncle, became "very angry" at this.

He warned Patrick he would not allow him to take Butler to court. Baldrige backed up his statement by pointing a shotgun against the window of Patrick's car. As Patrick got out of the car, saying "let's talk this thing over," Baldrige stepped back and raised up the shotgun. Patrick reached for the gun "and a shot followed."

March Bringing Touch Of Spring

CHICAGO (AP)—There was a touch of spring in the air over most of the nation today as March came in like a lamb with mild temperatures and mostly clear skies.

Fair weather prevailed from the central and southern Rockies eastward to the Atlantic Coast, in the Ohio Valley, the eastern Great Lakes region and much of New England.

Precipitation was confined mainly to the extreme northwest where a storm off the coast brought rain to western Washington and Oregon and a few showers extending south into California.

U. S. One Of Unhealthiest Countries Of World, Belief

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is "one of the unhealthiest countries of the world today," says Dr. Paul Dudley White, chief medical consultant to President Eisenhower since his heart attack.

White said he thinks the high rate of heart disease is attributable to lack of exercise more than to faulty diet or excessive smoking, adding: "Nobody has proved that tobacco is related, but it can be an aggravating factor when you have the disease."

White, president of the American Heart Assn., gave his views last month to a House Appropriations subcommittee considering the budgets of the National Health Institutes. The subcommittee today made public the testimony, taken behind closed doors.

"Certainly," White said, "coronary thrombosis is an epidemic. That may be true of cancer in the lungs. That is in this country, not in others. I think we are one of the unhealthiest countries of the world today.

"Some people think this is due to the fact that we make the diagnosis sooner. I admit that we do diagnose more cases. I don't think that is the answer."

Heart disease, he said, is "a disease of young people, and mostly men," and he continued:

"Two noteworthy changes have taken place in our way of living; we now have so many pushbuttons that we have stopped the use of our muscles, and that may be more important than anything else. This is a big question mark. Also, our diet has become richer and richer."

He added that he didn't think "stress and strain" caused arteriosclerosis.

"Hard work never killed any man, hard work, both physical and mental," he said. "Most cardiacs can't only work but should. There is a limit to the work of anybody; you have to apply common sense."

Planning Body Meets Tonight On Zone Plea

Commission Leader Says Council Must Set Public Hearing

Two important zoning measures—one dealing with the controversial shopping center proposal north of Hargus Creek, and the other with the annexed area in the North—will be studied at a meeting of the city planning and zoning commission tonight.

Both were turned over to the commission by city council on Feb. 21. Ludwig Haacker, chairman of the commission, said the measures have to be held for 30 days.

Present indications are that both measures will be returned to council after the 30-day period, Haacker said. He added that it will then be up to council to announce any plans for public hearings.

One measure calls for the rezoning of the Hargus Creek area between N. Court and N. Pickaway Streets from its present residential classification to one of commercial. This would pave the way for a proposed Kroger supermarket, planned as nucleus for a shopping center.

A SIMILAR proposal was brought up last year and the zoning commission, then under the chairmanship of Bob Adkins, turned it down. City council followed suit.

Backers of the project have reportedly made several changes from their original proposal. Three weeks ago, they presented a petition signed by residents in the area to city council requesting the rezoning.

Opponents of the supermarket are being led by Pickaway County Prosecutor William Ammer, whose Pleasant St. residence borders on the area affected. Ammer has warned he will take the matter to the courts if the rezoning is approved.

The second measure concerns the area in the northeastern section of the city which was annexed officially less than two years ago. The sector has never officially been classified as to zoning areas.

Dog Owners Given Another Reminder

As of today, and until next October, dog owners in Circleville can be called into city court and fined if their pets are found running loose in the community.

Pickaway County Dog Warden Ralph Wallace has urged immediate compliance with the city ordinance, so that violations can be held to a minimum. The ordinance is in effect through the Spring and Summer months as a special protection for lawns and gardens.

Dog owners have been warned that a license on a pet does not permit the animal to run loose in the city.

Miss Lucy's Unproved Claim Cited In Move

University Takes Action Soon After U. S. Judge Orders Readmission

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—A. Therine Lucy, Negro coed, today was expelled from the University of Alabama for unproved charges that school authorities conspired in mob action against her.

There was no official announcement from the board of trustees, but members confirmed that the action was agreed upon at meeting last night. They asked that their names not be used.

The action came within hours after U. S. Dist. Judge H. Hobart Grooms ordered the board to vacate an order excluding the 26-year-old Birmingham woman from the campus for safety reasons. He gave the university until Monday to take the action readmitting her.

There was no immediate comment from the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People, which had sponsored her 2½-year legal battle to get admittance to the all-white school.

Andrew Thomas, attorney for the university, was closeted with Grooms in the judge's chambers this morning but declined any comment on reports that new legal steps are contemplated.

"I AM SHOCKED" at this turn of events," said Miss Lucy. "I have done all that I can. I was looking forward to returning to school. At this point there is nothing more that I can say."

Thurgood Marshall, NAACP chief counsel, said he had no comment. He represented the young woman at the hearing before Judge Grooms yesterday.

Meanwhile, the Alabama House of Representatives passed a resolution that would require Miss Lucy to testify Monday before a legislative committee investigating Communist activity.

Rep. T. K. Selman, who introduced the resolution in the House, said "racial tension in Alabama has mounted too fast in the last few months. I believe it is the work of Communists working through the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People."

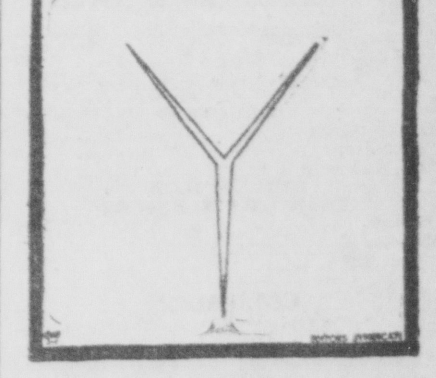

In the Senate, unanimous voice approval was given to a resolution which would ask Congress for federal legislation to provide funds "to finance an apportionment of Negroes among the several Northern and Western states, areas where Negroes are wanted and can be assimilated."

At the start of the hearing yesterday, Marshall was allowed to drop allegations that the trustees and university officials named as defendants had conspired with outsiders in mob rioting that drove Miss Lucy from the campus at Tuscaloosa Feb. 6.

Marshall told the court that after careful investigation we are (Continued on Page Two) has "done a good job; I'll vote for him." Then O'Connell raised a question mentioned by several others—the status of Vice President Nixon.

That is important to Charles Prager of Jackson Heights, N.Y., a 1952 Eisenhower supporter. "If they renominate Nixon," he said, "Eisenhower definitely will not get my vote."

Hazel Shockley, a statehouse elevator operator at Sacramento, Calif., said, "I'd like to see Eisenhower back in, but what about Nixon?"

Identical comments on another angle came from three farmers interviewed at random in the Omaha, Neb., stockyards. Each said Eisenhower didn't keep his pre-election promises to the farmers. They were Verlin Selows, Stromburg, Neb.; Grant Rullestad, Huxley, Iowa; and B. P. Setter, Manilla, Iowa.

Prosecution Ends Testimony In Baldrige Murder Trial

WASHINGTON C. H. — The state rested its second-degree murder case today in the trial of a farmer accused in connection with the shotgun slaying Nov. 15 of a game protector.

The prosecution completed its case shortly after a gun expert testified the old shotgun which killed the game protector was "in good functioning order" and the safety catch was "not defective."

The testimony came from Joseph Martina, laboratory technician for the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation.

George Baldrige, 63, is accused of murder in the shotgun death of Irvin J. Patrick on the opening day of the 1955 hunting season. Patrick was a native of Pickaway County.

Martina told the jury he had tested Baldrige's 12-gauge shotgun, had shaken it and struck it. He added: "The only way I could get the gun to fire was to pull the trigger."

The state charges Baldrige, a Fayette County farmer and former Adams County sheriff, shot and mortally wounded Patrick when the 43-year-old game protector tried to arrest Baldrige's nephew for possession of illegal hen pheasants. The slaying occurred on the Baldrige farm.

Martina was shown pictures of Patrick's wound today and estimated he was shot from a distance of one to three feet. He added he failed to find Patrick's fingerprints or any other prints on the weapon. The defense claims Patrick seized Baldrige's gun.

Sheriff Orland Hays said Defense Atty. Emory S. Smith of Portsmouth, also a gun expert, had examined the shotgun and termed it "a good gun for an old gun."

Yesterday, Jack Kamman, a state game supervisor, testified he was with Patrick at the time of the shooting. He gave this sequence of events:

Patrick tried to arrest Donald Butler of Seaman for having two illegal birds (hen pheasants) in his possession. Baldrige, Butler's uncle, became "very angry" at this.

He warned Patrick he would not allow him to take Butler to court. Baldrige backed up his statement by pointing a shotgun against the window of Patrick's car. As Patrick got out of the car, saying "let's talk this thing over," Baldrige stepped back and raised up the shotgun. Patrick reached for the gun "and a shot followed."

March Bringing Touch Of Spring

CHICAGO — There was a touch of spring in the air over most of the nation today as March came in like a lamb with mild temperatures and mostly clear skies.

Fair weather prevailed from the central and southern Rockies eastward to the Atlantic Coast, in the Ohio Valley, the eastern Great Lakes region and much of New England.

Precipitation was confined mainly to the extreme northwest where a storm off the coast brought rain to western Washington and Oregon and a few showers extending south into California.

U. S. One Of Unhealthiest Countries Of World, Belief

WASHINGTON — The United States is "one of the unhealthiest countries of the world today," says Dr. Paul Dudley White, chief medical consultant to President Eisenhower since his heart attack.

White said he thinks the high rate of heart disease is attributable to lack of exercise more than to faulty diet or excessive smoking, adding: "Nobody has proved that tobacco is related, but it can be an aggravating factor when you have the disease."

White, president of the American Heart Assn., gave his views last month to a House Appropriation subcommittee considering the budgets of the National Health Institutes. The subcommittee today made public the testimony, taken behind closed doors.

"Certainly," White said, "coronary thrombosis is an epidemic. That may be true of cancer in the lungs. That is in this country, not in others. I think we are one of the unhealthiest countries of the world today.

"Some people think this is due to the fact that we make the diagnosis sooner. I admit that we do diagnose more cases. I don't think that is the answer."

"Two noteworthy changes have taken place in our way of living: we now have so many pushbuttons that we have stopped the use of our muscles, and that may be more important than anything else. This is a big question mark. Also, our diet has become richer and richer."

He added that he didn't think "stress and strain" caused arteriosclerosis.

"Hard work never killed any man, hard work, both physical and mental," he said. "Most cardiacs can't only work but should. There is a limit to the work of anybody; you have to apply common sense."

University Takes Action Soon After U. S. Judge Orders Readmission

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Atherine Lucy, Negro coed, today was expelled from the University of Alabama for unproved charges that school authorities conspired in mob action against her.

There was no official announcement from the board of trustees, but members confirmed that the action was agreed upon at meeting last night. They asked that their names not be used.

The action came within hours after U. S. Dist. Judge H. Hobart Grooms ordered the board to vacate an order excluding the 26-year-old Birmingham woman from the campus for safety reasons. He gave the university until Monday to take the action readmitting her.

There was no immediate comment from the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People, which had sponsored her 2½-year legal battle to get admittance to the all-white school.

Andrew Thomas, attorney for the university, was closeted with Grooms in the judge's chambers this morning but declined any comment on reports that new legal steps are contemplated.

"I AM SHOCKED" at this new turn of events," said Miss Lucy. "I have done all that I can. I was looking forward to returning to school. At this point there is nothing more that I can say."

Thurgood Marshall, NAACP chief counsel, said he had no comment. He represented the young woman at the hearing before Judge Grooms yesterday.

Meanwhile, the Alabama House of Representatives passed a resolution that would require Miss Lucy to testify Monday before a legislative committee investigating Communist activity.

Rep. T. K. Selman, who introduced the resolution in the House, said "racial tension in Alabama has mounted too fast in the last few months. I believe it is the work of Communists working through the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People."

In the Senate, unanimous voice approval was given to a resolution which would ask Congress for federal legislation to provide funds "to finance an apportionment of Negroes among the several Northern and Western states, areas where Negroes are wanted and can be assimilated."

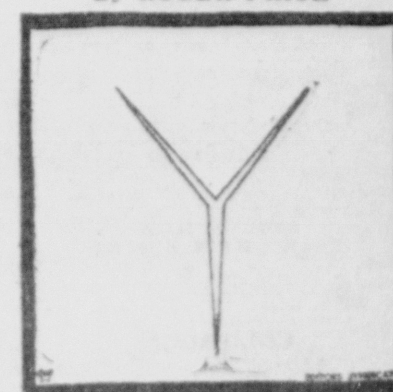

At the start of the hearing yesterday, Marshall was allowed to drop allegations that the trustees and university officials named as defendants had conspired with outsiders in mob rioting that drove Miss Lucy from the campus at Tuscaloosa Feb. 6.

Marshall told the court that "after careful investigation we were

DROODLES

By ROGER PRICE

"TEETHPICK" This Teethpick was copied from a real good one that my landlady, Mrs. Goonsgarten, has on her charm bracelet. She originally gave it to the late Mr. Goonsgarten on the Plastic Wedding Anniversary and when he passed away he left it to her along with his bottle cap collection and his autographed photo of President Harding. There's a touching, poetic inscription on the teethpick that goes, "Poopsy (that's him) Roses are red, violets are blue, you've only got 2 teeth, but I love you" signed "Sluggo" (that's her). You must admit that's really heartwarming. In fact, it's almost as heartwarming as Mrs. Goonsgarten's hash croquets.

Eisenhower's Risk Said Reasonable

BOSTON — Dr. Paul Dudley White, chief medical consultant to President Eisenhower, said today the doctors believe "the President's health and his ability to carry on his work should continue to be satisfactory for years to come."

"From my own experience and that of many other cardiologists, the risk that the President has consented to take is a reasonable one," the Boston heart specialist said.

February 1956 Keeps Month's Wet Reputation

February this year in the Circleville area was just about as "wet" as the same month in 1955.

Yesterday — the extra leap-year day — failed to add to last month's accumulation of rainfall here, but Wednesday's figures already showed that the area had very close to five inches of rain during February.

Accumulation for the month was 4.99 inches, as compared to 5.03 inches of rainfall here during February of last year. The surplus this year was 2.34 inches. Last year, it was 2.48 inches.

So far this year, rainfall in the vicinity of Circleville is running well ahead of normal. Normal up to this time of year is 5.80 inches, and the local area this year has already had 7.11 inches of precipitation.

For a more accurate reading of rainfall during March, the Herald's "drought score" will be suspended for the first few days of this month.

Miss Lucy's Unproved Claim Cited In Move

unable to produce any evidence to support these allegations. This amendment takes out every single allegation of conspiracy.

The first major reaction came from Ace Carter, executive secretary of the North Alabama White Citizens Councils, an affiliation of 43 pro-segregation groups. Carter called a mass meeting here for March 9 and predicted an attendance by 15,000.

"We believe we have found a solution to Grooms' ruling," said the anti-integration leader, but he would not say what the solution was. He added: "We believe in fundamental correction."

On the university campus at Tuscaloosa, scene of the rioting which drove Miss Lucy from the school, all was quiet.

AFTER HER COURT victory, Miss Lucy issued a brief statement and went into seclusion. The statement said in part:

"As I see it this is a decision for law and order and I am naturally pleased by it. I hope to go on and become a student who will be a credit to the university."

Grooms sent Miss Lucy back to school despite dire predictions from defense witnesses during a hearing yesterday in his small, walnut-paneled courtroom that her reappearance would be met with violence, and possibly by assassination.

Last July, the Kentucky-born judge ordered the university to accept the onetime Birmingham secretary as a coed in the wake of a Supreme Court decision that she was entitled to admission.

Miss Lucy actually enrolled in the school Feb. 2 but when she attempted to attend classes, four days of rioting broke out among 3,000 students and others described by university officials and police as "outsiders."

On Feb. 6, the university's board of trustees barred Miss Lucy from the campus for "her own safety."

With the legal assistance of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, Miss Lucy asked Grooms to cite 13 university trustees and officials for contempt of his July order.

In his decision, Grooms vacated the contempt motion. He ruled that the university officials had "acted in good faith" under the riotous circumstances.

A companion plea by Miss Lucy that she be granted dormitory and dining room facilities on the campus was taken under advisement by Grooms until tomorrow.

Before he read his decision, the tall, bespectacled judge observed, "There are some people who believe his court should carve out a province in north Alabama, fortify the borders, man the battlements and defy the Supreme Court."

His court, said Grooms, would never undertake such defiance.

Dismissal Asked Of Case Against Youthful Killer

WAPAKONETA — The attorney for three youths accused of murder in the holdup slaying of a tavern keeper Jan. 24 has asked dismissal of the indictment against one on grounds he is only 17 years old.

The motion to dismiss was filed by Ernest S. Navarre on behalf of James Thornton of Hazel Park, Mich. Sheriff Robert Davidson said Thornton gave his age as 18 when he was booked after his arrest.

Navarre also filed a request for a bill of particulars on the circumstances surrounding the slaying. This was filed on behalf of Willie Thomas, 20, and Bernard Harris, 19. They also are from Hazel Park.

They are accused of murder in the holdup slaying of Charles H. Stolzenbach, 54, of Wapakoneta.

April, Not March, Found Windiest Month Of Year

WASHINGTON — You think March, starting today, is the windiest month? Historically, it isn't. April is.

So the Weather Bureau says in a report on "climatological extremes" out today.

It should be a gem of information to people who like to talk about the weather but have worn their favorite facts a little thin. It says, for example:

The highest wind speed ever measured near the ground's surface was recorded on Mt. Washington, N. H., April 12, 1934. The highest gust was 231 miles an hour and the highest speed for one minute was 186 miles an hour.

The foggiest place in the United States is the Libby Islands, just off the coast of Maine. It is said to have an annual average of 1,534 hours of fog.

The highest temperature ever recorded under standard conditions was 136 degrees, recorded at Azia, Tripolitania, in Northern Africa on Sept. 13, 1922. Until then Death Valley in California had held the record at 134 degrees.

THE WORLD'S lowest temperature, 90 degrees below zero, was recorded at Oimekon, Siberia, in February 1933.

The world's greatest average annual rainfall recorded is 471.68 inches at Mt. Waialeale, Kauai, Hawaii for the 1912-49 period.

Wynooche, Wash., was said to hold the U. S. annual rainfall record of 105.73 inches.

The world's greatest rainfall for one minute was reported at 0.69 inches at Jefferson, Iowa, on July 10, 1955.

Bagdad, Calif., holds the U. S. record of the longest dry period—767 days, from Oct. 3, 1912, through Nov. 8, 1914.

Paradise ranger station at Rainier Park, Wash., holds the U. S. record for the greatest average annual snowfall—375.1 inches, while Tamarack, Calif., holds the record for the greatest amount in one season—884 inches in 1906-07.

The bureau says no means have been established to measure size of snowflakes, but some as large as saucers were reported to have fallen at Nashville, Tenn., on Jan. 24, 1891. This country's largest recorded hailstone fell at Potter, Neb., July 6, 1928, and weighed 1 1/2 pounds.

Fine, Suspended Jail Sentence Penalty For Fatal Dog Beating

Fleddie Wall, 38, of 223 S. Scioto St., was fined $100 and costs and given a suspended 90-day jail term for admittedly beating a two-month-old Pomeranian puppy to death Wednesday night.

Wall was accused by his wife, Lethel, of killing her pet dog on the marble top of a dresser in the Wall residence. Wall, who said during the city court hearing today that he is a steam fitter and welder, was also accused of being drunk and disorderly at the time and was fined an additional $50 and costs.

Municipal Judge Sterling Lamb, after hearing Wall's plea of guilty to killing the dog, said such a case "is entirely foreign to this court and it is very hard to understand how it could happen."

He placed Wall on a year's probation and warned him that any violation of any law would result in his being returned to the court and the jail term imposed.

Mrs. Wall recounted the events leading up to the incident. She said her husband, to whom she said she had been married only since last May, had come home "smelling like he'd been drinking."

As the evening progressed, she said, "he became more drunk and violent."

"WHEN I got home from bringing my 15-year old daughter (by a previous marriage) home from church, he was really vicious," she said. "He twisted my arm and then began to swear at my daughter."

"The dog was sitting in her lap. He went to grab for it and I told my daughter not to argue with him. Then he went into the bedroom and beat the dog's head over the dresser top saying 'This is what I think of you dog.'"

Mrs. Wall said he then threw the dog down at the kitchen door. She said she picked it up, gathered her daughter and a son (also by her previous marriage) and ran to the sheriff's office. Deputies turned the case over to city court.

She also described how her husband once tried to wring the puppy's neck. Wall retorted that he was "just playing around with the dog."

Mrs. Wall further told how three weeks ago he took a parakeet by the wing and plucked out all of its feathers until it died. He explained that he had just been "playing around" with the bird and that its death "must have come about because of something else."

POLICE CHIEF Elmer Merriam said that when he went to the Wall residence this morning he found it a shambles. He verified Mrs. Wall's contention that her husband had broken light bulbs, pulled out wires and had broken the refrigerator door, among other things.

The chief said he also found blood stains on the dresser and at the kitchen door. He also said he noted drops of blood leading from the bedroom to the kitchen, and that an attempt had been made to clean them up.

Wall said that he had been irritated by the children during dinner. He contended he had consumed "two beers in Williamsport before coming home."

He said he remembered killing the dog but nothing after that. He pleaded innocent to the drunk charge.

Wall made arrangements to pay his fine and costs.

GOP Chieftain Sees Nixon On Ticket Again

WASHINGTON — Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall today predicted that Vice President Eisenhower's running mate for another term and called them "the greatest team" in the country.

Hall made the prediction to a jammed news conference at which he also said that if the Democrats make the President's health an issue in the campaign it will "backfire on them."

"The American people simply won't stand for tactics of that kind," he declared.

Hall also announced the national committee expects to spend upward of $2 million on a television-radio campaign.

In line with Eisenhower's speech last night in which the President said he would rely heavily on mass communication media with no barnstorming, Hall said "whistle stop campaigning is out."

He said if there is any extensive campaign traveling to be done, the party has a big organization and could send out members of the Cabinet except for Secretary of State Dulles "whom we wouldn't ask to make political speeches."

U. S. Jet Crashes Into Japan Home

Sale Of 1956 Vehicle Tags Is Underway

John M. Dietrich of 1040 Lynwood Ave. today made the first Pickaway County purchase of the 1956 auto tags.

The plates, bearing the number Y-801, purchased in the office of Joe Brink, deputy registrar of motor vehicles, will be displayed on the car of Dietrich's son, Larry.

By noon, 300 Pickaway Countians had purchased the green tags with white numerals to replace their old, battered 1955 passenger car tags. In addition, 27 truck and trailer plates had been issued.

Larry Dietrich also bought the first motorcycle plates.

John Barr of Stoutsville purchased the first trailer tags, bearing the numerals 280H1.

THE FIRST commercial truck plates were purchased by Harold R. Hott. The plates bear the numerals 4QU151.

Worley Storts of Stout Rd. was issued the first farm plates bearing the numbers 62751.

Vehicles must have 1956 plates, one on the front and the other on the rear, by midnight, March 31. Purchasers of tags must show their certificate of title or a duplicate of it.

Ohioan Asks Federal Aid On Highways

WASHINGTON — Uncle Sam should pay most of the bills for expressways that ease the congestion of interstate traffic in Ohio cities, Congress was told today.

Chalmers P. Wylie, city attorney for Columbus, Ohio, said his city plans such an expressway. Since most of the traffic consists of motorists passing through, he said, the cost should be charged chiefly to the federal government.

In a statement prepared for the record of the House Roads Subcommittee, Wylie added:

"Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo, Akron, Dayton, Youngstown and every city in Ohio is concerned with this problem. Interstate traffic is congesting their streets and Ohio cities are in no position to finance the cost of relocating interstate routes. They must and quite properly seek federal aid."

Wylie said Columbus favors the basic provisions of the roads bill introduced by subcommittee Chairman Fallon, (D-Md.).

This measure would authorize building interstate highways with 90 per cent federal money and 10 per cent state funds. It also would refund to cities the cost of relocating utility facilities in the path of federal aid highways.

It will cost Columbus, Wylie estimated, about $5 million to relocate its water lines for the expressway program.

Korean Veterans Entitled To Old Jobs, Ruling Says

COLUMBUS — Ohio veterans discharged during the Korean conflict in order to enlist for a definite term have the right to re-employment by private employers within 90 days after final release from service.

Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill made that ruling today, saying that a discharge solely for the purpose of re-enlistment is a "separation" from service only in the narrowest technical sense.

The attorney general said a veteran's right to his former job could be exercised under state law at any time during the 90-day period following his unconditional release from service.

Hall made the prediction to a jammed news conference at which he also said that if the Democrats make the President's health an issue in the campaign it will "backfire on them."

"The American people simply won't stand for tactics of that kind," he declared.

Hall also announced the national committee expects to spend upward of $2 million on a television-radio campaign.

In line with Eisenhower's speech last night in which the President said he would rely heavily on mass communication media with no barnstorming, Hall said "whistle stop campaigning is out."

He said if there is any extensive campaign traveling to be done, the party has a big organization and could send out members of the Cabinet except for Secretary of State Dulles "whom we wouldn't ask to make political speeches."

Divorce Action Brings Real Action

MARTINEZ, Calif. — Troy Fortner was more than somewhat disturbed when his wife sued for divorce. After a process server delivered a subpoena, he returned home and told his wife Joanne:

"We started without anything and we're going to finish that way."

With which statement, police said, he wrecked a $600 television set, living room table and chairs, coffee table, beds, dressing table, a refrigerator and an electric stove.

FARM AND HOME WEEK: The 44th annual Farm and Home Week at Ohio State University has been set for March 20 to 22. The program has been shortened one day for the annual event. The theme for the week will be "Let's Look at the Facts". The regular adult programs will be held on March 20 and 21 and the traditional youth program is scheduled for the 22.

All departments of the College of Agriculture have scheduled full programs including the traditional farm machinery display by the Department of Agricultural Engineers.

The 12th annual Ohio Rural Health Conference will be held in connection with Farm and Home Week on March 20.

CERTIFIED SWINE: A list of swine breeders who have litters which were recently certified at the Ohio Swine Evaluation Station has been received by our office. Pickaway County swine breeders who are interested in improving their swine herd through the use of these better boars may contact our office for further information.

NEW RAT POISON: A new anticoagulant poison for rats and mice called "fumarn" is now commercially available, according to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The poison is very similar to "warfarin" and "pibal" in its poisonous properties in that it causes rats and mice to bleed to death internally. It is recommended as a multiple-dose poison.

Three to five consecutive feedings, daily or not over two days apart, is recommended. It can be mixed with corn meal, rolled oats, or other cereals.

SOIL BANK: The soil bank plan currently being discussed in Congress is several plans rolled into one.

First of all, the price support program on basic commodities would continue with acreage allotments being in effect. To be eligible for price supports, a farmer would still have to comply with his acreage allotments and marketing quota.

The soil bank plan, in two parts, would be in addition to the regular allotment. One part of the plan provides for farmers to take out of production acreage in addition to the regular allotment and voluntarily plant in to grass and agree not to harvest as hay or pasture. Farmers would then be compensated in relation to the value of the crop which would normally have grown.

The second part of the soil bank provides for farmers to plant acreage poorly suited to cultivation into more permanent type cover. A farmer would agree to keep the acreage in cover for a specified period; for example three, five, or ten years. Payments would be made on certificates which would be cashed in or traded for surplus commodities.

The matter, of course, at this point is uncertain as to the final form in which it would go into effect. As the old saying goes, "All I know is what I read in the paper."

SOIL TEST RESULTS: Pickaway County farmers who have had soil tests made recently and plan to have their soil tested will be interested in the following information:

Ohio State University Agronomist say, and we quote, "Due to results obtained from recent research studies of soil test evaluations, the rating values of phosphorous and potassium (good, fair, poor, and critical) are being adjusted."

Previously with phosphorous, 90 pounds or better was rated good; 75 to 90 pounds fair; 50 to 75 pounds, poor; and 25 or less critical. The new standard will show 36 pounds or more to be good, 21 to 35 pounds fair, 11 to 20 pounds poor, and 10 or less pounds critical.

The values for potassium have correspondingly been adjusted downward. Where formerly to rate good soil needed 250 pounds or better, the new rating is 180 pounds or more.

The former figures of 175 has been adjusted to 126 to 180. Where 150 pounds was considered poor previously the revised sheet calls for a range of 76 to 125 pounds,

Fathers, Men Over 26 Told Their Draft Calls Postponed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If you are a father or are about to become one, your induction into military service will continue to be delayed. The same holds true for men over 26 and "specialists" like scientists and engineers.

This was announced Wednesday by Col. Harold L. Hays, director of Selective Service for Ohio.

Delays or postponements of induction in these categories were temporary the past several months while procedures were clarified, Hays said.

While the great bulk of the registrants in these categories will be retained in Class 1-A, 1-A-O or 1-O, "their selection for further processing will be delayed," he added.

He said registrants for future induction calls will be selected in this order:

1. Nineteen-year-old delinquents (from previous calls) in the order of their birth dates, oldest selected first.

2. Volunteers under 26 in the order they have volunteered.

3. Non-volunteers who are 19 and under 26, who are not fathers, in the order of their birth dates, oldest selected first.

4. Non-volunteers who are 19 or over and under 26, who are fathers, selected in the same order as class 3.

5. Non-volunteers who have reached 18 years, six months, but are under 19, in the order of their birth dates, oldest first.

Group 4 includes registrants who have no children but whose wives are pregnant. A statement of a licensed physician attesting to the pregnancy should be sent to the local board before the order for induction is mailed out, Col. Hays said.

Ohio Presbyterian Secretary Dies

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Rev. John Paul Vincent, executive secretary of the Ohio Presbyterian Synod, died yesterday.

A synodical committee meeting was in progress in his office here when the Rev. Mr. Vincent was stricken, apparently with a heart seizure.

At one time, he was president of the College of the Ozarks, Clarksville, Ark. The Rev. Mr. Vincent became executive secretary of the Ohio Synod in May 1953.

Columbus Lawyer Disbarred Year

COLUMBUS (AP)—Emanuel H. Leberman, 59-year-old Columbus attorney, was found guilty of two counts of "misconduct" in common pleas court yesterday and ordered disbarred for one year.

The Ohio Supreme Court returned the case to the lower court after taking exception to several rules of law.

Boy Born On Mom's Seventh Birthday

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP)—Mt. Vernon's first Leap Year baby boy was born yesterday on his mother's seventh birthday.

Mrs. Charles E. Miller was a Leap Year Day baby herself. That was 28 years ago but she's celebrated only seven birthdays since. The Millers have three other children.

McCrady Says Roads In County Not Major Cause Of Accidents

Pickaway County highways and roads do not in themselves cause the greatest majority of automobile accidents, according to County Engineer Henry McCrady.

"Our roads are as good if not better than those in surrounding counties," McCrady declared. "The accidents we have been having are happening because drivers do not pay attention to signs."

McCrady's observations were backed up by a report from Sheriff Charles Radcliff's department. A survey of vehicular mishaps shows that accidents occur in a wide variety of locations in the county.

Another report, this time from the State Patrol, adds further weight to McCrady's remarks. The Patrol reports that only one intersection in the county had any degree of a high number of crashes, with five deaths being recorded at the intersection of Routes 56 and 104 in a month's time.

HOWEVER, the only other intersection to merit attention in the Patrol report was 22 and 104. The report stated that there were nine crashes there in 1954 and six in the first nine months of 1955. Yet, this ranked the intersection 133rd in the state in the number of accidents.

These views, however, are directly opposed to those of Edmond C. Powers, chairman of national and local safety engineering committees and a nationally known traffic accident analyst.

Powers said in a speech not long ago that motorists cannot drive safely on an unsafe highway, especially if the driver cannot see the unsafe stretches in time to avoid an accident. He declared, "Let's quit kidding ourselves that talking safety is a substitute for engineering safety."

(McCrady said that possibly the worst problem in the county was at Dead Man's Crossing at Leistville, the intersection of Routes 56 and 159. But since a blinker light was installed there, no fatalities have been recorded and accidents there have been reduced to virtually none.)

Powers said that National Safety Council figures show that last year's death total came near the worst record, made in 1941. Yet, he observed, 1955 was the year when national, state, and local efforts to "drive safely" were at an all-time high.

"The reality we had better face up to is that we are relying too much on driver intelligence as the cure-all for traffic slaughter," he said. "What is needed is the most effective means possible of warning motorists in advance so they can avoid accidents."

Flavor is what's been missing in margarine. And flavor is what Lever Brothers devoted seven years to achieve. It wasn't hard to make Imperial spread smoother and easier than any other margarine. And it wasn't hard to make Imperial as nutritious as even the most expensive spread you can buy. The trick was flavor. And Imperial is the first margarine to capture and hold that unmistakable flavor everybody loves.

Cheese is one of the "good things that come in small packages". On that next shopping trip, stop by the cheese department and see how many kinds you can pick out... how many you have tasted... which ones you would like to try. There's a kind for every taste and pocketbook.

Today, the cheese display in many food stores might be called a cheese "buffet" because of the large variety of cheeses available. The USDA describes 400 varieties and more than 800 names have been indexed.

Because of the great number of cheese products, it is important that the shopper read the labels on packages. The Pure Food and Drug Administration has established legal standards of identity for cheese and cheese products which move into interstate commerce.

Some cheese products may contain ingredients other than pure cheese. There is a difference in the amount of moisture and butterfat in different cheese or cheese foods. Process cheese, process cheese food and cheese spread are different. A pasteurized, filled cheese food may not even be labeled "cheese."

THESE differences make it extremely important for the shopper as well as consumer to read the package information or to know the differences between the numerous products so that the greatest value may be secured for the money to be spent.

Cheese—natural or process, food or spread—is a nutritious palatable food. The real advantage of cheese, which has been a basic food for 3,000 years, is that it preserves all the best qualities of milk in a form that is easy to store and transport.

It is made throughout the world variously from whole, partly skimmed and skimmed milk of cows, goats, sheep, reindeer, zebu and other miscellaneous sources. In its simplest form it is naturally fermented, as in the case of home-made cottage cheese.

The use of rennet, a coagulating agent that hastens the forming of curds, was discovered in ancient times and is essential in today's cheese-making. The distinctive flavor of cheese is developed during ripening, by the action of either bacteria or mold, or both.

This milk product seems to be becoming increasingly important in our diet. In 1935, the annual per capita consumption of cheese was about 3 pounds and in 1955 the per capita consumption had more than doubled to about 7½ pounds.

Ohio produced more than 45½ million pounds of cheese in 1954. This volume placed her sixth in production in the United States. According to extension consumer specialists, Ohio is noted especially for Liederkranz and Swiss-type cheese. In fact, most of the Liederkranz cheese produced in this country is made in Ohio. Some of the famous brand dairy product companies get all their Swiss cheese from Ohio manufacturers and package it under their own labels.

As we eat more cheese our tastes seem to change from mild to more pronounced flavors. Cheddar, Roquefort and Camembert are examples of natural cheeses which are ripened by certain molds, yeasts, or bacteria.

PASTEURIZED process cheese may be made from one or more graded natural cheeses which are blended with an emulsifier and pasteurized. Fruits, vegetables or meats may be added to this cheese product. Process cheese does not age after processing. There is no rind or waste.

Cold pack cheese or club cheese may be made from one or more varieties of natural pasteurized cheese by grinding. The cheese is then packaged without reheating. The moisture and fat content of the cold pack cheese will be the same as for the natural.

Pasteurized filled cheese food is made from skim milk cheddar cheese and a non-milk fat. It cannot be labeled "cheese." It is usually labeled by a brand name only and is generally less than pasteurized process cheese.

Chester Swank, consumer food marketing specialist of Ohio State University, calls attention to the fact that cheese, the highly concentrated form of milk, has a lot of good nutrients packed inside. It is a good source of protein, calcium and Vitamin A.

Store cheese in the refrigerator to prevent mold; keep it covered to prevent absorption of odors and less of moisture.

Cincinnati Slayer Being Assigned To Lima State Hospital

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Darrell F. Smith, 23, of Cincinnati, one of two men charged with murder in the slaying of Mrs. Mary Ellen Barger, 20, Wednesday was ordered committed to the Lima State Hospital for the insane.

Common Pleas Judge P. P. Boli ordered Smith sent back to the hospital "until he is restored to reason, at which time the court will proceed with the case."

Psychiatrists at the hospital reported Tuesday that Smith was insane. They held, however, that his companion in the alleged slaying, Lloyd Luther White Jr., 22, of Denver, Colo., is sane. White will be given a hearing in court here Monday.

Mrs. Barger, a young mother, was shot to death Nov. 28 on a Hamilton street as one of two men tried to grab her. Smith and White were arrested later in Orlando, Fla. Police said White admitted the shooting but claimed it was accidental.

He Has Touchy Assignment: Tell 11 Girls About Women

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The least envied man among film directors is David Miller, who has the touchy task of guiding 11 actresses in a movie about women.

Miller, 25-year veteran of film making despite his youngish looks, is directing "The Opposite Sex." It's a modern, musicalized version of "The Women," written by the Ambassador to Italy, Clare Booth Luce. Now well into the shooting, Miller says his dolls are happy as clams.

Such was not the case in the first filming of the play (1939). It starred such high-powered people as Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford, Rosalind Russell, Joan Fontaine, etc. Reports are that the queens would vie to see who could arrive on the set last.

The new version has such figures as June Allyson, Ann Sheridan, Joan Collins, Dolores Gray, Ann Miller, Joan Blondell, Vivienne Segal, Barbara Jo Allen (Vera Vague) and Alice Pearce.

"We haven't had any problems," remarked Director Miller, not even pausing to knock on wood. "All the girls have been as nice as they can be."

Farmers' Prices Holding Steady

WASHINGTON (P)—The Agriculture Department reported today that farm product prices held steady on the average between mid-January and mid-February. The farm price level in mid-February was 7.38 per cent below that of a year earlier and 27.8 per cent below the record high set in February 1951.

Prices paid by farmers for goods and services used in family living and in production declined one-third of 1 per cent during the month.

The general level of farm prices

He Has Touchy Assignment: Tell 11 Girls About Women

HOLLYWOOD (P)—The least envied man among film directors is David Miller, who has the touchy task of guiding 11 actresses in a movie about women.

Miller, 25-year veteran of film making despite his youngish looks, is directing "The Opposite Sex." It's a modern, musicalized version of "The Women," written by the Ambassador to Italy, Clare Booth Luce. Now well into the shooting, Miller says his dolls are happy as clams.

Such was not the case in the first filming of the play (1939). It starred such high-powered people as Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford, Rosalind Russell, Joan Fontaine, etc. Reports are that the queens would vie to see who could arrive on the set last.

The new version has such figures as June Allyson, Ann Sheridan, Joan Collins, Dolores Gray, Ann Miller, Joan Blondell, Vivienne Segal, Barbara Jo Allen (Vera Vague) and Alice Pearce.

"We haven't had any problems," remarked Director Miller, not even pausing to knock on wood. "All the girls have been as nice as they can be."

was 81 per cent of parity compared with 80 per cent in mid-January, 86 per cent a year ago and a record of 123 per cent set in October 1946.

"Of course, I took pains to see that there would be no cause for irritation. In the matter of wardrobe, the finest of fabrics and designs were chosen for each of them. Each was asked if she was satisfied with her clothes, and efforts were made to follow whatever suggestions they had."

This was confirmed by designer Helen Rose, who was passing by. "I had no real problems," she said. "Before production started," Miller added, "I had them come to my office individually and rehearse their parts. I wanted them to understand and be satisfied with their characterizations. In a picture with so many characters, you're apt to lose sight of some of them if they're not firmly in mind beforehand."

Actresses sometimes blow up if they find another star has a bigger dressing room. Miller said he solved that by ordering 11 dressing rooms all the same size.

What about the danger of the girls' trying to outwit each other in reporting to the set?

"We have a system that solves that," the director explained. "When the cameraman figures it will be five minutes until he is ready to shoot, we notify the actresses. I've told them that the sooner they report, the more time we'll have to rehearse, thus helping the picture. They have all cooperated."

Middletown Jail To Give Up Its Hobo Flop Room

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (P)—The turning of the wheels of progress is going to make it tough on hoboes who have been accustomed to receiving a night's free lodging at the Middletown Jail.

The city building, including the jail, is being remodeled so that traditional transient hostelry, called the "flop room" will have to be taken over temporarily to accommodate some of the jail's prisoners.

That's going to leave the transients without a free place to stay.

It has been the custom here to allow hoboes and other insolvent transients to sleep in the "flop room" without a charge of any

Commission Power Cited In Ruling

COLUMBUS (P)—Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill has ruled that a county welfare director could abolish civil service jobs in his department only with consent of county commissioners.

The opinion to the State Civil Service Commission said a 1947 law gave commissioners complete control of welfare departments.

The opinion explained that the power of commissioners to create positions in a welfare department implied the authority to control the abolition of jobs.

AS SCHOOL enrollments increase and new buildings become more and more costly to build, many thoughtful persons wonder why a 12 months school year isn't adopted.

Why leave a costly school plant idle for three months out of the year, they ask. Why not operate the schools the year round?

The answer is: It has been tried—and it doesn't work.

At any rate that is the consensus of a panel of school superintendents at a convention of the American Association of School Administrators at Atlantic City, N. J.

"The practical advantages are real—but parents just won't stand for it," said Wendell Godwin, superintendent of schools in Topeka, Kans.

Other panel members explained that Newark, N. J., tried it 25 years ago but gave it up. Aliquippa, Pa., employed the plan for a few years after World War II but abandoned it. Los Angeles spent time and money studying such a proposal but decided against it after a poll of public sentiment.

Supt. Paul Misner of Glencoe, Ill., said: "The conclusion has always been that it would upset the social pattern, which is partly built around the Summer vacation." Misner then neatly summarized the debate:

"Whether we will reach the point where the specter of taxation for new buildings will overbalance the social pressure, I don't know."

SHAPE OF THE EARTH

FOR YEARS people have assumed Columbus resolved the question of the earth's shape but apparently he did not for once again the dissenters are rising in protest. Is this planet round or flat? Neither, it's sort of squashed at both ends — or to be more exact, it's pumpkin shaped.

This is not only a theory, it is a fact, according to Ohio State University scientists who are working to produce the first accurate map of the earth. These scientists say that Columbus was basically right in his beliefs, except that the planet is slightly flat at both poles and bulges somewhat at the equator, giving it an ellipsoidal appearance.

Only this isn't exactly true, either, they say, for there are irregularities, or undulations, in the surface at sea level. Thus, the earth might more accurately be called an irregular, spherical ellipsoid, or something.

As if the damage to the great discoverer's reputation is not severe enough, the announcement purporting to show him as slightly wet came from Columbus, Ohio.

Actually, scientists and others long have realized the irregularities of the earth's surface, but there was no immediate need to begin the complicated task of plotting and measuring each deviation. With the influx of jet aircraft and the greater use which will be made of non-stop flights around the world, it is important, navigational, that this survey be made.

It may take two years for the scientists to produce an accurate map of the earth, so exacting is the task, but the result is well worth the effort. One can only surmise that Columbus would be appalled at the

George E. Sokolsky's These Days

What we seem to be discussing most these days on the Republican side is the Vice Presidency. It is now being taken for granted that President Eisenhower is running for re-election and that as far as that goes, no convention is necessary. All the by-play will settle down in the course of time and James C. Hagerty will be saved the inconvenience of making explanations.

The present emphasis is on the photographs which are an ample display of the President's complete recovery and in Dr. Paul Dudley White's numerous and readily understandable statements which give every assurance that the President's health is good for a second term.

So, in the minds of most Americans, it is taken for granted that Ike will run and that the Democrats will have to adjust their 1956 sights accordingly.

However, the Vice Presidency, which in 1956 is exceedingly important, remains somewhat in doubt unless Eisenhower quickly puts an end to the murderous efforts of powerful forces inside and outside the Republican Party to kill off the present Vice President, Richard Nixon. These efforts are so aggressive and gangsterlike as to be suitable for a plot for an Erle Stanley Gardner murder.

This is one of the most curious situations in American political history. Usually nobody really cares who runs for Vice President because generally that official just sits around for four years presiding over the Senate and hardly looking very important or even interesting.

Richard Nixon has been an extraordinarily active Vice President, taking on a share of the President's work, travelling about the world on official visits, making the kind of speeches the President wanted him to make and keeping in the news. He was particularly useful during the worst period of the President's illness.

However, despite the photographs of good health and Dr. Whites medical obituary, there are politicians even within the Administration who recall that what might have happened to Henry Wallace did happen to Harry Truman, and they are sufficiently unmoral to be willing to take a chance. So they are out to kill off Richard Nixon on the generalization that he is not as popular as he should be and that a more acceptable person should be found.

Mentioned as more popular are such people as Governor Christian Herter of Massachusetts, a very fine person of whom most Americans never heard, and Thomas E. Dewey of whom they have heard too much. Also mentioned are Harold Stassen, George Humphrey and a dozen more. All these personalities would not mind succeeding to the Presidency by constitutional means.

No answerable arguments are offered but it can be guaranteed that the main opposition to Nixon arises from the fact that he put Alger Hiss in prison. No one can deny his claim to this historic honor and many powerful organizations as well as individuals hate him for that because the exposure of Hiss opened the doors to the exposure of a thousand spies and conspirators and gave validity to the anti-Communist effort.

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO

ALONE in his office, Linda waited eagerly for Alan's return. She sat for a while in the chair, but she was standing at the window, watching the sunset, when he came in, as silent as a cloud. He came in behind her, spoke her name softly—she turned, and he took her into his arms. She clung to him, her lips against his mouth, her cheeks soft against the roughness of his, her hand upon his dark hair.

"Love me, Linda," he murmured. "Love me!"

"I do, Alan! I do! I have always loved you..."

It was dark when they started home, and in the car, switching on the lights, he sat gazing for a minute at the radiance upon her face, the gleam of her hair.

"I'm sorry," he said gruffly, "that you got let in on my blow-off to Ernst. But—there's always a time when a lecture is indicated. That was it!"

"It was a very good lecture, too," she said happily. "You were absolutely right. The individual is important! But only if he manages his relationship to others for the good of all—" Her smile flashed. "I'm lecturing now," she said. "And somehow I don't think this is the time."

He chuckled. "The important thing is your understanding of me."

She sniffed. "More important, I hope, than your attempting to understand me!"

He made no comment, but on the way home she knew that he continued to glance at her, and excitement rose within her, happiness. He drove around the big house, to the rear steps, and when she got out, his arms again drew her close, and he kissed her. Linda held him tight, tight! This happiness—he was her lover, and her child! What woman could ask for joy greater than this?

Indoors they found the family group a bit upset. Linda remembered that she should have stopped at the cottage—and at her first word with Seretha, she also remembered that she'd told no one of Ann's trouble in school.

It appeared that Lucy's mother had just paid a call upon Ma'am which had plunged Seretha into despair. The whole family, she declared, seemed beset with grief.

DIET AND HEALTH

New Drug Discoveries Used To Relieve Pain

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

NEW drugs for treating rheumatic diseases, fungal infections and infections of the urinary tract are among medicine's latest developments in the battle against health hazards.

For example, cortisone, one of the new drugs, is designed for use in mild to moderate conditions of rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis, gouty arthritis, bursitis, myositis, tenosynovitis, fibrositis and neuritis.

More Potent Form

It combines prednisolone, a more potent form of hydrocortisone, with acetylsalicylic acid (aspirin). The drug offers both anti-inflammatory and pain-deadening action.

Sigmagen is another new drug for use against gout, bursitis, lumbago and muscular rheumatism. It combines the anti-inflammatory action of metocorten with pain-relieving salicylates and vitamin C.

It's been estimated that some 6,000,000 Americans have these aches and pains which generally aren't considered severe enough for treatment with steroids. Maybe these two new drugs will help them.

Internal Injections

Nystatin (derived from the words New York State) is an antifungal antibiotic for use in treating athlete's foot, ringworm and fungal infections of the mouth, throat and intestinal tract.

In the past, many such infections have been difficult if not impossible to halt when inside the body.

Doctors report nystatin is also being combined with other antibiotics to increase their safety and usefulness. The drug was discovered by two New York scientists.

Recent Study

Furadantin, tests show, is effective in treating urinary tract infections. A study made by four Boston doctors, with the aid of a grant from the U. S. Public Health Service, shows that "most cases of acute or uncomplicated infections respond favorably" to the drug.

In most instances, the report adds, chronic and complicated infections also show some clinical improvement.

But it is of the utmost importance to realize these drugs, if indicated, should only be used under the advice and guidance of the physician.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A. D.: Is it true that older mothers have a greater tendency to give birth to twins?

Answer: Yes, there is a slightly higher proportion of twins born to older mothers.

"The Chaney's put in their two-bits' worth, as well," growled Jasper.

Seretha ignored him. "Oh, dear, dear! Well, I give you. I won't blame you, Linda, for deciding that you'd be well out of all this..."

Linda crossed the room to her, and knelt beside the chair. "Oh, but, Ma'am," she cried, "I am not out of it, and I don't want to be. The family—remember what Ann said? The family needs me."

"What family do you mean, dear?" Ma'am could speak of the family disgrace; she was not ready to let another speak of it.

Linda laughed. "I mean the same family you do. The Thorntons—my family!"

Seretha lifted her crisp handkerchief to her lips. "Oh," she said uncertainly, "the Thorntons. I thought perhaps there was something new..."

Alan gave Linda a hand up; they both were laughing. "It is a new family to me," Linda told Seretha. "You see, I've just found out that the Thorntons—all of them—are mine."

So the morning came, ten years later, when men were again being called to the wars, and Linda had promised to talk to Manning Fowler in an effort to help him reach his own decision. She would, of course, tell him that there was no best way, no easy way...

Her memories past, her thinking done, the golden sun an hour higher in the heavens, a tap on the half-open door announced Jacob—still the "young" butler in Ma'am's eyes—to tell Miss Linda that Manning was downstairs. And around Jacob's tall person came, breathless, a red-curtled boy of eight; his green eyes were bright, his gar-toothed mouth grinning in spite of the message he brought.

"Mommie!" he called shrilly. "Aunt Flora says for you to come—Uncle Arthur's sick as a horse!" His smile faded into anxiety.

"That's bad, isn't it?" She laughed as she rose to join her son. "Yes, Jappy," she told him. "In our family, it couldn't be worse. Especially if it's a good horse!"

Holiday Of Witches Passes

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Yesterday was the 29th of February, the holiday of witches.

Graciousness rode that day and lights all people born upon it who have a birthday only every four years.

so the reverse of Halloween. Witches don't zoom off into the yonder; they brake their brooms downward and become part of the party.

Typical witch talk at an earth party:

First witch (elderly): "Oh, I say the crowd sure has gone downhill since Shakespeare wrote about us, I must say."

Second witch (middle-aged): "You couldn't be more right, dearie. Ever since I lost my late husband (the poor devil) I've felt so. What's that, sir, are you in real estate, too? How unexpected. May I offer a suggestion on your new tenant rates?"

Third witch (young): "So many overpowering young men. What they see in me I really don't know or do I? Why of course, young man, I will dance with you. What is the rhythm, the polka, the turkey trot, or the rhumba. Oh, the waltz? The waltz any witch from any time remembers. Never mind leading me, I'll lead you—'da-da-da-da'—how can one forget it—'da-da-da-da'—won't it go on forever?"

The music goes on and on as if it would never stop, and the first witch finally says:

"Listen, girls, we are losing our sense of social responsibility. At least under Shakespeare we knew where the next pot we could cast an asp into was coming from."

"Oh, don't be so professional," sighs the second witch, who was working into a fast early century fox trot. "I've just got my date at the point where he is telling me the sad story of his wife."

The music changes, switches to jitterbug, and the third witch's mouth flies open in the slack-jawed posture common to this form of art. Movement? Obvious. Conversation? Impossible. Dawn cracks suddenly. The eldest witch cries, "Girl, you know we shouldn't be out after midnight."

All three witches mount brooms and fly away.

"Just like women," grumble the men. "Always breaking up the party."

The mystic quadrennial holiday on Feb. 29 is over—leaving mankind the old calendar problem.

March the first.

Graciousness rode that day and lights all people born upon it who have a birthday only every four years.
so the reverse of Halloween. Witches don't zoom off into the yonder; they brake their brooms downward and become part of the party.
Typical witch talk at an earth party:
First witch (elderly): "Oh, I say the crowd sure has gone downhill since Shakespeare wrote about us, I must say."
Second witch (middle-aged): "You couldn't be more right, dearie. Ever since I lost my late husband (the poor devil) I've felt so. What's that, sir, are you in

These Days

George E. Sokolsky's
What we seem to be discussing most these days on the Republican side is the Vice Presidency. It is now being taken for granted that President Eisenhower is running for re-election and that as far as that goes, no convention is necessary. All the by-play will settle down in the course of time and James C. Hagerty will be saved the inconvenience of making explanations.

The present emphasis is on the photographs which are an ample display of the President's complete recovery and in Dr. Paul Dudley White's numerous and readily understandable statements which give every assurance that the President's health is good for a second term.

So, in the minds of most Americans, it is taken for granted that Ike will run and that the Democrats will have to adjust their 1956 sights accordingly.

However, the Vice Presidency, which in 1956 is exceedingly important, remains somewhat in doubt unless Eisenhower quickly puts an end to the murderous efforts of powerful forces inside and outside the Republican Party to kill off the present Vice President, Richard Nixon. These efforts are so aggressive and gangsterlike as to be suitable for a plot for an Erle Stanley Gardner murder.

This is one of the most curious situations in American political history. Usually nobody really cares who runs for Vice President because generally that official just sits around for four years presiding over the Senate and hardly looking very important or even interesting.

Richard Nixon has been an extraordinarily active Vice President, taking on a share of the President's work, travelling about the world on official visits, making the kind of speeches the President wanted him to make and keeping in the news. He was particularly useful during the worst period of the President's illness.

However, despite the photographs of good health and Dr. Whites medical obiters dicta, there are politicians even within the Administration who recall that what might have happened to Henry Wallace did happen to Harry Truman, and they are sufficiently unmoral to be willing to take a chance. So they are out to kill off Richard Nixon on the generalization that he is not as popular as he should be and that a more acceptable person should be found.

Mentioned as more popular are such people as Governor Christian Herter of Massachusetts, a very fine person of whom most Americans never heard, and Thomas E. Dewey of whom they have heard too much. Also mentioned are Harold Stassen, George Humphrey and a dozen more. All these personalities would not mind succeeding to the Presidency by constitutional means.

No answerable arguments are offered but it can be guaranteed that the main opposition to Nixon arises from the fact that he put Alger Hiss in prison. No one can deny his claim to this historic honor and many powerful organizations as well as individuals hate him for that because the exposure of Hiss opened the doors to the exposure of a thousand spies and conspirators and gave validity to the anti-Communist effort.

real estate, too? How unexpected. May I offer a suggestion on your new tenant rates?"
Third witch (young): "So many overpowering young men. What they see in me I really don't know or do I? Why of course, young man, I will dance with you. What is the rhythm, the polka, the turkey trot, or the rhumba. Oh, the waltz? The waltz any witch from any time remembers. Never mind leading me, I'll lead you—'da-da-da-da'—how can one forget it?—'da-da-da-da'—won't it go on forever?"
The music goes on and on as if it would never stop, and the first witch finally says:
"Listen, girls, we are losing our sense of social responsibility. At least under Shakespeare we knew where the next pot we could cast an asp into was coming from."
"Oh, don't be so professional,"

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO
ALONE in his office, Linda waited eagerly for Alan's return. She sat for a while in the chair, but she was standing at the window, watching the sunset, when he came in, as silent as a cloud. He came up behind her, spoke her name softly—she turned, and he took her into his arms. She clung to him, her lips against his mouth, her cheeks soft against the roughness of his, her hand upon his dark hair.
"Love me, Linda," he murmured. "Love me!"
"I do, Alan! I do! I have always loved you..."
It was dark when they started home, and in the car, switching on the lights, he was gazing for a minute at the radiance upon her face, the gleam of her hair.
"I'm sorry," he said gruffly, "that you got let in on my blow-off to Ernst. But—there's always a time—when a lecture is indicated. That was it!"
"It was a very good lecture, too," she said happily. "You were absolutely right. The individual is important! But only if he manages his relationship to others for the good of all—" Her smile flashed. "I'm lecturing now," she said. "And somehow I don't think this is the time."
He chuckled. "The important thing is your understanding of me."
She sniffed. "More important, I hope, than your attempting to understand me!"
He made no comment, but on the way home she knew that he continued to glance at her, and excitement came within her, happiness. He drove around the big house, to the rear steps, and when she got out, his arms again drew her close, and he kissed her, Linda held him tight, tight! This happiness—he was her lover, and her child! What woman could ask for joy greater than this?
Indoors they found the family group a bit upset. Linda was remembering that she should have stopped at the cottage—and at her first word with Seretha, she also remembered the she'd told no one of Ann's trouble in school.
It appeared that Lucy's mother had just paid a call upon Ma'am which had plunged Seretha into despair. The whole family, she declared, seemed beset with grief.

New Drug Discoveries Used To Relieve Pain

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
NEW drugs for treating rheumatic diseases, fungal infections and infections of the urinary tract are among medicine's latest developments in the battle against health hazards.
For example, cortex, one of the new drugs, is designed for use in mild to moderate conditions of rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis, gouty arthritis, bursitis, myositis, tenosynovitis, fibrositis and neuritis.
More Potent Form
It combines prednisolone, a more potent form of hydrocortisone, with acetylsalicylic acid (aspirin). The drug offers both anti-inflammatory and pain-deadening action.
Sigmagen is another new drug for use against gout, bursitis, lumbago and muscular rheumatism. It combines the anti-inflammatory action of metocortin with pain-relieving salicylates and vitamin C.
It's been estimated that some 6,000,000 Americans have these aches and pains which generally aren't considered severe enough for treatment with steroids. May be these two new drugs will help them.
Internal Injections
Nystatin (derived from the words New York State) is an antifungal antibiotic for use in treating athlete's foot, ringworm and fungal infections of the mouth, throat and intestinal tract.
In the past, many such infections have been difficult if not impossible to halt when inside the body.
Doctors report nystatin is also being combined with other antibiotics to increase their safety and usefulness. The drug was discovered by two New York scientists.
Recent Study
Furadantin, tests show, is effective in treating urinary tract infections. A study made by four Boston doctors, with the aid of a grant from the U. S. Public Health Service, shows that "most cases of acute or uncomplicated infections respond favorably" to the drug.
In most instances, the report adds, chronic and complicated infections also show some clinical improvement.
But it is of the utmost importance to realize these drugs, if indicated, should only be used under the advice and guidance of the physician.
QUESTION AND ANSWER
A. D.: Is it true that older mothers have a greater tendency to give birth to twins?
Answer: Yes, there is a slightly higher proportion of twins born to older mothers.

the Thornton family. Margaret's behavior with that man—that ridiculous performance of Arthur and Flora, and Ann now behaving like a common..."
"The Chaney's put in their two-bits' worth, as well," growled Jasper.
Seretha ignored him. "Oh, dear, dear! Well, I give you. I won't blame you, Linda, for deciding that you'd be well out of all this..."
Linda crossed the room to her, and knelt beside the chair. "Oh, but, Ma'am," she cried, "I am not out of it, and I don't want to be. The family—remember what Ann said? The family needs me."
"What family do you mean, dear?" Ma'am could speak of the family disgrace; she was not ready to let another speak of it.
Linda laughed. "I mean the same family you do. The Thorntons—my family!"
Seretha lifted her crisp handkerchief to her lips. "Oh," she said uncertainly, "the Thorntons. I thought perhaps there was something new..."
Alan gave Linda a hand up; they both were laughing. "It is a new family to me," Linda told Seretha. "You see, I've just found out that the Thorntons—all of them—are mine."
...
So the morning came, ten years later, when men were again being called to the wars, and Linda had promised to talk to Manning Fowler in an effort to help him reach his own decision. She would, of course, tell him that there was no best way, no easy way...
Her memories past, her thinking done, the golden sun an hour higher in the heavens, a tap on the half-open door announced Jacob—still the "young" butler in Ma'am's eyes—to tell Miss Linda that Manning was downstairs. And around Jacob's tall person came, breathless, a red-curling boy of eight; his green eyes were bright, his gap-toothed mouth grinning in spite of the message he brought.
"Commie!" he called shrilly. "Aunt Flora says for you to come—Uncle Arthur's sick as a horse!" His smile faded into anxiety. "That's bad, isn't it?"
She laughed as she rose to join her son. "Yes, Jappy," she told him. "In our family, it couldn't be worse. Especially if it's a good horse!"

Bangs And Chignons Make Coiffure News For Spring

Are you set for Spring? More important, is your hair set for Spring?

Coiffures come into the picture importantly these days because, with the vernal season just three weeks off, a lady's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of a new straw bonnet. What goes under that bonnet in the way of a hairdo counts, too.

If you're planning about-face maneuvers with your hair, give a thought to the latest coiffure styles. As always, the hairdo picture is a wide one. There's something for everyone. Look them over, take your choice.

Keeping trend with the big fashion movement to the East, Japanese bangs make the Oriental coiffure news. As shown in the above picture, there is also back interest. Hair, waved over the ears, is massed at the nape of the neck.

Shadow bangs and petal-edged waves make a style-right hairdo for Spring. Like many Coiffures, they look pretty.

When the auctioneer bangs his gavel to begin the Saltcreek PTO auction Saturday, the first item to be offered for sale will be a scoreboard.

The scoreboard, made by Saltcreek Township School's manual arts class in 1941, has a great deal of sentimental value attached to it. It was the only one of its kind to be used in Pickaway County during the past season and for the past several years.

Funds raised at the PTO auction will be used to buy equipment for the new classrooms and an all-purpose room. Among the pieces of equipment to be purchased, is a new electric scoreboard which will be used in Saltcreek's new gymnasium.

Bangs And Chignons Make Coiffure News For Spring

Are you set for Spring? More important, is your hair set for Spring?

Coiffures come into the picture importantly these days because, with the vernal season just three weeks off, a lady's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of a new straw bonnet. What goes under that bonnet in the way of a hairdo counts, too.

If you're planning about-face maneuvers with your hair, give a thought to the latest coiffure styles. As always, the hairdo picture is a wide one. There's something for everyone. Look them over, take your choice.

Keeping trend with the big fashion movement to the East, Japanese bangs make the Oriental coiffure news. As shown in the above picture, there is also back interest. Hair, waved over the ears, is massed at the nape of the neck.

Shadow bangs and petal-edged waves make a style-right hairdo for Spring. Like many Coiffures, this one is easy to keep pretty. Bangs are the thing this year. Some just make a fringe at one or both sides of the forehead, others are full.

Whether bangs are full or partial, there's no doubt that they're flattering to many facial types. They break the forehead and soften what might be a severe line. Back interest is something else to conjure with.

The back-swept has a romantic look. Waves are combed backward and end in a semi-chignon effect. This gives an illusion of length to a short hairdo. It's a charming notion, with a wonderful old-fashioned feminine way to it.

Whether hair curls forward toward the face or is swept back, whether it's front interest with a bang or back interest with a chignon, all new hairdos have something in common: you can keep them under your hat (that new Spring number) and rest assured they look pretty.

When the auctioneer bangs his gavel to begin the Saltcreek PTO auction Saturday, the first item to be offered for sale will be a scoreboard.

The scoreboard, made by Saltcreek Township School's manual arts class in 1941, has a great deal of sentimental value attached to it. It was the only one of its kind to be used in Pickaway County during the past season and for the past several years.

Funds raised at the PTO auction will be used to buy equipment for the new classrooms and an all-purpose room. Among the pieces of equipment to be purchased, is a new electric scoreboard which will be used in Saltcreek's new gymnasium.

Ohio GOPsters Confident Of Assembly Win

Republicans See Party
Continuing Control Of
State Legislature

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republicans express confidence they will elect majorities this year in both houses of the 1957 Legislature. They base their optimism on a nose count of candidates in the May 8 primaries and on past successes in general elections favoring the GOP.

Only once since the 1937 Legislature have Democrats gained majorities. They held paper-thin margins in the 1949 House and Senate.

Leaders said adoption of the Massachusetts - type ballot, first used by Ohio in the 1950 election, made it doubly difficult for Democrats to win control of the General Assembly.

That type ballot, they explained, groups candidates for the offices sought and prevents "coat tail" riding that was prevalent in general elections under the old party-column ballot. Primary candidates appear on separate Democratic and Republican ballots.

Voters next November will elect 139 representatives and 34 senators. Republicans need 70 House seats and 18 in the Senate for control. The 1955 legislature had 136 house members and 33 senators. Republicans had 89 representatives and 21 senators last time.

Fractional apportionment under the 1950 census accounts for a larger 1957 General Assembly. Cuyahoga, Clark and Stark counties each will have one more representative. The 30th-33rd Senatorial District will have two senators instead of one. The district is composed of Ottawa, Sandusky, Erie, Huron, Fulton, Henry, Putnam, Wood and Hancock counties.

Democrats lack senatorial candidates in three districts, virtually assuring election of Republicans there. Unopposed by either Democrats or Republicans are Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem of Nelsonville in the 9th-14th District and Ross Pepple of Lima in the 32nd. In the 7th-8th district, incumbent Sen. Oakley C. Collins of Ironton is opposed for the GOP nomination by Rossiter S. Williams of Oak Hill, but Democrats lack a candidate in the district.

Incumbent Democrats Charles J. Carney and Stephen R. Olenick, both of Youngstown, are in a

Weekly Food Review

Family food costs this week stayed close to recent low levels. Food stores across the country were offering special sales in a variety of products, especially meat. Since fresh produce must be shipped to much of the country at this time of year, there were few outstanding buys in this field. But meat and poultry were priced near recent lows.

On the wholesale market prices moved up a shade but were still close to the low point hit in mid-January.

Here and there a few things were more expensive. Coffee prices generally were raised a few cents a pound in the past week or so by roasters and large food chains. Items like tomatoes and avocados, shipped to out-of-season markets, were also higher.

On meat counters pork again looked like the best buy. Beef also remained low and lamb was a bit higher in some sections.

In general the outstanding vegetable buys were potatoes and onions.

Good buys included new cabbage, pascal celery, sweet potatoes, beets, turnips and spinach.

Alabama Governor Rapped By Group

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A

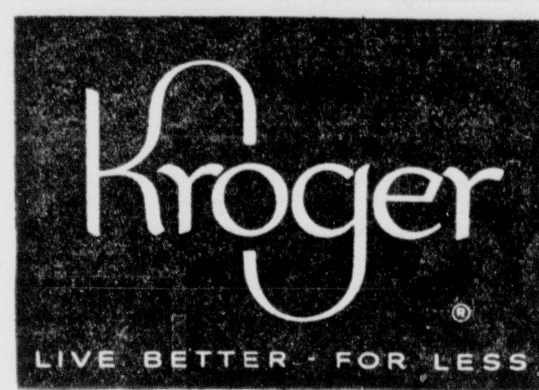

white supremacy organization has loudly approved the indictment of Negro leaders of a bus boycott here, but claims that Gov. James E. Folsom "has not proven competent during these grave and grievous times."

The criticism against Folsom was included in a resolution which put the Central Alabama Citizens

Council on record as opposed to a biracial commission which might try to solve racial disputes outside the framework of Alabama's segregation laws.

Easter Seen Telling Trend Of Business

Consumer May Show His Feeling Toward Future Economy

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Business should have the answer to a number of uncertainties before Easter.

Consumers may well pick March to show their hands in several ways:

1. With an early Easter, the blustery month of March will span the entire pre-Easter sales drive by the merchants.

2. If the month goes out like a lamb, the auto industry may get its first test of how healthy the hoped-for spring pickup in car buying will be.

3. The home building industry, also counting on spring to awaken the urge to own your own home, may find who is right: the one who says a revival in building is due, or the one who says mortgage money will stay tight and buyers chary.

What business will be watching is how strong a tonic March will supply. A seasonal pick-up is expected — the usual quickening of the economy through gains in construction, farming and seasonal industries. The question that this month may have the answer for is: Will the pickup be as strong as last year, or will it lack its usual punch?

The consumer isn't the only one who will be showing his hand. Congress has some decisions to make this month. Businessmen are re-signing to its continuing for another year the 52 per cent income tax rate on corporations and for most of the excise taxes on some consumer goods like autos.

Business will look to Congress this month for at least a hint on what it will do about such important spending items as highways, schools, farm price supports, and foreign aid. There might even be a clearer notion of what's in store for individuals on their income tax rates.

This month sees about two million workers getting a pay raise. The federal minimum wage rises to $1 an hour. That wage law applies to about 24 million workers, but the great majority already make $1 or more an hour.

Some of those affected already make more than the 75 cents an hour that previously was the minimum. But it is estimated that pay hikes will add about 560 million dollars a year to consumer spending power.

Fayette County Decision Holds Up

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court yesterday declined to reconsider its action of Feb. 8 which affirmed a Fayette County court decision involving title to the county fairgrounds at Washington C. H.

Common pleas court enjoined the county agricultural society from appropriating the 47-acre site that it now rents. An appellate court overruled the injunction.

Sokolsky's These Days

It also embarrassed many who, while themselves not Communists, tended to be either favorably disposed toward the Communists or indifferent about their being exhibited to the people for what they are. All such persons hate Richard Nixon, not as violently as they do Joe McCarthy but with sufficient venom to try to kill him off as Vice President now that they are cynical about the eternal validity of the photographs and the interviews with Dr. Paul Dudley White.

Eisenhower could fool them and live to be 80 and he might even be elected for a second term and carry on to 1960, but they are willing to gamble.

Many such persons are not Republicans. Some of them are impartial in the sense that they do not care which party is in power as long as their influence is felt. Among such are the Committee for an Effective Congress, the Fund for the Republic, Americans for Democratic Action and similar organizations. They all dislike Richard Nixon even if they have no votes in the Republican primaries.

And so against Richard Nixon is being conducted an extraordinarily vicious smear job. It is not specific. No charges are being made. No attacks are clear-cut, understandable and therefore answerable. It would be as though my dog, Joe, were to say, "He doesn't smell like a President."

Well, who does among the bushel of candidates we have had these past 20 years?

Truckers Taking To Free Highways

COLUMBUS (AP)—The commercial hauler seems to have driven automobiles off free roads and onto the Northern Ohio Turnpike, the chairman of the Ohio Turnpike Commission has told Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

This has resulted in making county, state and U. S. highways "free, private right of way" for commercial truckers, says the chairman, James Schocknessy.

Schocknessy gave his views in a letter to the governor that recounted the steps the commission has taken to attract truckers to the turnpike. Some truckers claim tolls charged are too high to make using the turnpike economical.

Boy Salts Away Video Winnings

NEW YORK (AP)—Fourteen-year-old George Wright, who won $100,000 on a television quiz program, has made certain he and his brother and sister get an education.

After a conference Wednesday with bank officials, the following figures were disclosed:

State and federal income taxes: $52,500.

Family living expense for the next year: $7,500. (His father will file a separate income tax return).

A tax-deductible gift to George's Madison Square Boys club: $10,000.

For the education of the three children: $30,000.

George won the money on NBC's "The Big Surprise."

Ohio Supreme Court Judge Doesn't Show His 89 Years

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—You'd never guess that Judge William Lincoln Hart is 89 or that he was beyond normal retirement age when he started his long career on Ohio's Supreme Court.

Yet he sits regularly for hearings with the court's six other robed judges. And he often works well past 10 o'clock on week nights on complicated cases.

During his 18 years on the state's highest court, Judge Hart has written and participated in decisions that fill 30 printed volumes.

He expects to write more than a dozen decisions this year and participate in others handed down before retirement at the end of his term next January.

Judge Hart thrives on hard work. He learned it early on his native farm in the Ohio River hills of Columbiana County near Salineville. He was the first of five boys and five girls born to Benjamin and Ariel Dreghorn Hart in a log cabin on Hazel Run.

"We lived a rural life and built up rugged constitutions," Judge Hart recalled. "We walked 2½ miles each way to school over the hills and through mud. That sort of built up your physique."

Judge Hart was erect and alert as he delivered into his past with evident relish. Glasses framed twinkling blue eyes that nearly matched his pin-stripe suit, set off with a red bow tie. His lightly lined face beamed under a full shock of wavy white hair.

Judge Hart traced his lineage back to Richard Warren, a passenger on the Mayflower, whose descendant married Phila Swift. The judge's great grandfather left Connecticut for Palmyra, N. Y. Later his grandfather, John Swift Hart, was attracted to Ohio by the salt production that abounded in the area from which Salineville took its name.

Judge Hart's father, Benjamin Franklin Hart, was the 15th of 17 children born at Salineville. The family's brick home built in 1832 still stands. Seven of John's sons served in the Civil War. The eighth was ineligible for service after losing an eye in a coal mine blast.

Benjamin was such an ardent admirer of Lincoln that his discharge papers described him as a Lincolnite. And like his father, Judge Hart reveres Lincoln. A large picture of Lincoln on the wall of Judge Hart's office stands out from those of his judicial colleagues.

Judge Hart taught in rural schools of Columbiana and Stark counties to get money for tuition in Mount Union College at Alliance. After graduation, he worked for three years as city editor of the old Alliance Daily Review before entering the University of Michigan Law School. He was graduated in 1897 and passed the Ohio bar the same year.

He formed a law partnership in Alliance with Hugo C. Koehler that with additions, lasted for more than 30 years until Koehler died in 1933.

The following year Judge Hart was elected to a short term of six weeks on the Ohio Supreme Court. His election followed elevation of a judge to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in the Sixth District.

After an unsuccessful try in 1936, Judge Hart won election to full six-year terms on Ohio's highest court in 1938, 1944 and 1950. His present term expires next Jan. 2.

Hog Truck Rams Freight Caboose

EAST LIVERPOOL (AP)—A truck full of hogs smashed into the caboose of a freight train at a rural crossing yesterday. One man was hurt. Eight hogs were killed and several others were injured.

The crash south of Columbiana demolished the truck and sent the caboose tumbling off the tracks in flames. As the caboose burned, many pigs fled into nearby fields.

A conductor on the Youngstown & Southern Railway train, R. C. Haas, 56, of North Lima, suffered cuts and head injuries.

The truck driver, Virgil Gray, 44, of Indianapolis, said he saw the northbound train as he approached the crossing, but could not stop. He was not hurt.

19 Boys Grabbed For Shoplifting

CANTON (AP)—The arrest of 19 boy shoplifters, some of whom were dressed from head to toe in stolen clothing, has been revealed by Capt. Frank Bors Jr. of the Child Welfare Bureau.

Bors said the boys, ranging in age from 11 to 17, admitted they stole from every department store in Canton, then shifted their activities to Massillon "because all the

GOP Jockeying For Veep's Post Seen As Possible Now

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower may have touched off Republican jockeying over the party's vice presidential nomination.

But it was six months in advance of the Republican Convention, and Eisenhower's reply was keyed to that: Let's wait, he said, and see who the convention nominates.

However, Eisenhower can—and in all probability will—settle the question of a running mate by convention time.

For the President, who is assured of renomination by acclamation if his health permits, told a news conference May 31 that unless the vice presidential nominee were acceptable to the head of the ticket the presidential nominee should immediately step aside.

Nixon himself limited immediate comment to Eisenhower's decision to run again. He predicted Eisenhower's re-election and added: "Only a man completely consecrated to the service of his country could have reached the decision President Eisenhower revealed today."

Eisenhower told reporters Nixon had been a loyal and dedicated associate, and successful in the broad field of work assigned to him as vice president. The President said he was very fond of Nixon.

But although he said he had tremendous admiration for Nixon, Eisenhower added that he wouldn't want to say at this point who should be the vice presidential nominee.

Eisenhower said Nixon was one of a half dozen persons he consulted Tuesday in making up his own mind definitely to become available for the nomination.

A reporter asked the President what he thought about Nixon's recent statement that the Supreme Court was headed by "a great Republican Chief Justice, Earl Warren."

With a tightened jaw line, the President said he was not going to comment on Nixon's comment.

The President's refusal to give Nixon a political nod at this point is certain to spur efforts by some factions of the Republican party to replace the vice president.

All such persons hate Richard Nixon, not as violently as they do Joe McCarthy but with sufficient venom to try to kill him off as Vice President now that they are cynical about the eternal validity of the photographs and the interviews with Dr. Paul Dudley White.

Eisenhower could fool them and live to be 80 and he might even be elected for a second term and carry on to 1960, but they are willing to gamble.

Many such persons are not Republicans. Some of them are impartial in the sense that they do not care which party is in power as long as their influence is felt. Among such are the Committee for an Effective Congress, the Fund for the Republic, Americans for Democratic Action and similar organizations. They all dislike Richard Nixon even if they have no votes in the Republican primaries.

And so against Richard Nixon is being conducted an extraordinarily vicious smear job. It is not specific. No charges are being made. No attacks are clear-cut, understandable and therefore answerable. It would be as though my dog, Joe, were to say, "He doesn't smell like a President."

Well, who does among the bushel of candidates we have had these past 20 years?

Truckers Taking To Free Highways

COLUMBUS (AP)—The commercial hauler seems to have driven automobiles off free roads and onto the Northern Ohio Turnpike, the chairman of the Ohio Turnpike Commission has told Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

This has resulted in making county, state and U. S. highways "free, private right of way" for commercial truckers, says the chairman, James Schocknessy.

Schocknessy gave his views in a letter to the governor that recounted the steps the commission has taken to attract truckers to the turnpike. Some truckers claim tolls charged are too high to make using the turnpike economical.

Family living expense for the next year: $7,500. (His father will file a separate income tax return).

A tax-deductible gift to George's Madison Square Boys club: $10,000. For the education of the three children: $30,000.

George won the money on NBC's "The Big Surprise."

Ohio Supreme Court Judge Doesn't Show His 89 Years

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—You'd never guess that Judge William Lincoln Hart is 89 or that he was beyond normal retirement age when he started his long career on Ohio's Supreme Court.

Yet he sits regularly for hearings with the court's six other robed judges. And he often works well past 10 o'clock on week nights on complicated cases.

During his 18 years on the state's highest court, Judge Hart has written and participated in decisions that fill 30 printed volumes. He expects to write more than a dozen decisions this year and participate in others handed down before retirement at the end of his term next January.

Judge Hart thrives on hard work. He learned it early on his native farm in the Ohio River hills of Columbiana County near Salineville. He was the first of five boys and five girls born to Benjamin and Ariel Dreghorn Hart in a log cabin on Hazel Run.

"We lived a rural life and built up rugged constitutions," Judge Hart recalled. "We walked 2½ miles each way to school over the hills and through mud. That sort of built up your physique."

Judge Hart was erect and alert as he delivered into his past with evident relish. Glasses framed twinkling blue eyes that nearly matched his pin-stripe suit, set off with a red bow tie. His lightly lined face beamed under a full shock of wavy white hair.

Judge Hart traced his lineage back to Richard Warren, a passenger on the Mayflower, whose descendant married Phyllis Swift. The judge's great grandfather left Connecticut for Palmyra, N. Y. Later his grandfather, John Swift Hart, was attracted to Ohio by the salt production that abounded in the area from which Salineville took its name.

Judge Hart's father, Benjamin Franklin Hart, was the 15th of 17 children born at Salineville. The family's brick home built in 1832 still stands. Seven of John's sons served in the Civil War. The eighth was ineligible for service after losing an eye in a coal mine blast.

Benjamin was such an ardent admirer of Lincoln that his discharge papers described him as a Lincolnite. And like his father, Judge Hart reveres Lincoln. A large picture of Lincoln on the wall of Judge Hart's office stands out from those of his judicial colleagues.

Judge Hart taught in rural schools of Columbiana and Stark counties to get money for tuition in Mount Union College at Alliance. After graduation, he worked for three years as city editor of the old Alliance Daily Review before entering the University of Michigan Law School. He was graduated in 1897 and passed the Ohio bar the same year.

He formed a law partnership in Alliance with Hugo C. Koehler that with additions, lasted for more than 30 years until Koehler died in 1933.

The following year Judge Hart was elected to a short term of six weeks on the Ohio Supreme Court. His election followed elevation of a judge to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in the Sixth District.

After an unsuccessful try in 1936, Judge Hart won election to full six-year terms on Ohio's highest court in 1938, 1944 and 1950. His present term expires next Jan. 2.

Hog Truck Rams Freight Caboose

EAST LIVERPOOL (AP)—A truck full of hogs smashed into the caboose of a freight train at a rural crossing yesterday. One man was hurt. Eight hogs were killed and several others were injured.

The crash south of Columbiana demolished the truck and sent the caboose tumbling off the tracks in flames. As the caboose burned, many pigs fled into nearby fields.

A conductor on the Youngstown & Southern Railway train, R. C. Haas, 56, of North Lima, suffered cuts and head injuries.

The truck driver, Virgil Gray, 44, of Indianapolis, said he saw the northbound train as he approached the crossing, but could not stop. He was not hurt.

GOP Jockeying For Veep's Post Seen As Possible Now

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower may have touched off Republican jockeying over the party's vice presidential nomination. But it was six months in advance of the Republican Convention, and Eisenhower's reply was keyed to that: Let's wait, he said, and see who the convention nominates.

However, Eisenhower can—and in all probability will—settle the question of a running mate by convention time.

For the President, who is assured of renomination by acclamation if his health permits, told a news conference May 31 that unless the vice presidential nominee were acceptable to the head of the ticket the presidential nominee should immediately step aside.

Nixon himself limited immediate comment to Eisenhower's decision to run again. He predicted Eisenhower's re-election and added: "Only a man completely consecrated to the service of his country could have reached the decision President Eisenhower revealed today."

Eisenhower told reporters Nixon had been a loyal and dedicated associate, and successful in the broad field of work assigned to him as vice president. The President said he was very fond of Nixon.

But although he said he had tremendous admiration for Nixon, Eisenhower added that he wouldn't want to say at this point who should be the vice presidential nominee.

Eisenhower said Nixon was one of a half dozen persons he consulted Tuesday in making up his own mind definitely to become available for the nomination.

A reporter asked the President what he thought about Nixon's recent statement that the Supreme Court was headed by "a great Republican Chief Justice, Earl Warren."

With a tightened jaw line, the President said he was not going to comment on Nixon's comment.

The President's refusal to give Nixon a political nod at this point is certain to spur efforts by some factions of the Republican party to replace the vice president.

19 Boys Grabbed For Shoplifting

CANTON (AP)—The arrest of 19 boy shoplifters, some of whom were dressed from head to toe in stolen clothing, has been revealed by Capt. Frank Bors Jr. of the Child Welfare Bureau.

Bors said the boys, ranging in age from 11 to 17, admitted they stole from every department store in Canton, then shifted their activities to Massillon "because all the local merchants knew us and would kick us out as soon as we got into the store."

Seven were put in the detention home as ringleaders. The others were cited to juvenile court and released to their parents.

Ohio Highway Aides Alerted For Expansion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state highway director, Samuel O. Linzell, is telling his engineers to be ready to work on an expanded road building program.

He is holding a series of conferences this week "all aimed at increased production" by various engineering divisions.

Monday he met with bridge engineers. Field design engineers and right-of-way engineers met with him Wednesday and Thursday.

The expanded program will come, Linzell said, if Congress passes legislation to improve 40,000 miles of interstate highways. Much of the work will be done in Ohio.

Linzell said he is aiming at earlier hearings on proposed relocations of roads, purchase of necessary right-of-way as soon as a new route has been established, more aerial mapping work and simplification of plans.

Linzell at his weekly press conference also told details of plans to establish a radio disaster network with transmitters in all 88 counties. The setup, tied in with Civil Defense, would cost Ohio about 1.8 million dollars and take two years to be set up. A beginning has been made.

Italian President Heard By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Giovanni Gronchi of Italy told Congress yesterday a closer knitting of the Western world in social and economic areas is needed to supplement existing military alliances.

"Military cooperation continues to be very important today, but it should be supplemented with new and imaginative forms of cooperation," he said in an address in Italian to a joint Senate-House session. "The new methods of a more organic cooperation should range from the political to the social and economic areas."

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

Navy's Balloon Testing Ends

Last Weather Gadget Down In Pacific

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Can you tell me what is the matter with me, and how to overcome it? I have been married seven years to Mike, who has never, in word or action, showed anything but complete love for me.

In the last month he has taken a very good job very far from here — a wonderful opportunity; something we've been working towards for a long time. I am to join him in six months; and meantime will see him once in that period.

As soon as Mike left, I began thinking maybe I never would hear from him again. I felt completely despondent and unloved. In two days I received a card mailed en route; then a long letter upon his arrival; and two more long, detailed loving letters within a week. And, on our anniversary, a telegram sending love.

Mike is embarking upon new, time-consuming, arduous work; yet, because I haven't had a letter this past week, I am completely despondent. I can just force myself through my work; and I am miserably unhappy and unable to enjoy anything. I have kept myself from telephoning him only by extreme self-control.

Many other times since we've been married I've had this horrible feeling. Once when we were separated for three days — and sometimes when he is right with me. I feel that he will stop loving me and that I will lose him. The strange thing is that I did not love him when we married; I married him in a moment of despair.

How can I build up freedom from this horrible feeling that engulfs me for no reason?

J. N. DEAR J. N.: The missing link, as it were, in your marriage—the elusive deficiency that haunts you with threat of desolation—is your lack of wifely real love for Mike. And back of this deficiency is the primary cause of it, namely: your ingrained unconscious assumption that you are nobody.

Your anxieties in respect to

Mike are twofold. They issue from traumatic infantile dread of abandonment, carried over from early painful neglect and deprivation. And also they refer to your present inability to move towards life, that is, towards intimate interpersonal relationships—due to hangover fear of being rejected if you disclose yourself to be a humble, hopeful candidate for shared love experience.

Although outwardly you are exquisitely gentle, gracious and considerate, perhaps, inwardly you are frozen, defensive and unreachably remote, in your dealings with Mike. And that's why you feel so lost to him, as if the relationship were an illusion, when he's engrossed in other things.

For a scholarly guide to self-understanding, you might read Ashley Montagu's book "The Development of Human Development" (Harcourt). Or, to vitalize your love capacity, try "God's Reach" by Glenn Clark (Macalaster Park).

M. H. Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

County Bond Sales Showing Decrease

Judge William D. Radcliff, chairman of the Pickaway County Savings Bonds Committee, today announced that Ohio sales Series E and H Savings Bonds in January amounted to just under $29 million. These sales are 16 percent below January of 1955 which was the highest first month since 1945.

January sales for Pickaway County were $47,031 for a decrease of $41,118 over the same month a year ago.

The County Chairman pointed out that while sales of E and H Bonds in 1955 reached the highest peak since the end of World War II, Ohio had received an $8 million increase in sales quota for OPPAMA, Japan (AP)—The last of 20 huge weather balloons launched here was presumed down somewhere in the Pacific today, ending the U. S. Navy's current experiment in gathering upper-atmosphere information.

Once that information is integrated and coordinated, Navy officials said, it will be made available to all nations.

The 40-foot balloons carry instruments to record weather data at more than five miles above the earth and automatic radio equipment to radio that information to ground and ship listening posts.

A Navy spokesman said balloon No. 20, launched early Monday, had not been heard since early last night. At that time it was about 780 miles south of Midway Island in the Pacific. It is believed it went into the Pacific, which claimed several other of the gas-filled plastic bags.

Six landed in the United States after crossing the Pacific on the howling, high-speed "jet stream" wind which carried Japanese fire bomb balloons to Western Pacific slopes during World War II.

TWO MADE IT all the way across America and came down near Newfoundland. One crossed the Pacific, the American continent, the Atlantic and, after five days and eight hours, finally came down near the coast of Portugal.

One ended up somewhere in Communist Outer Mongolia, a big surprise to Navy officials here who expected all 20 to move toward the United States on the jet stream.

And three skirted up the Communist Siberian Coast before eventually veering eastward toward Alaska. One of those, No. 19, was last reported over the North Pole.

1956. This is in proportion to the national increase in sales goals.

Counties leading the state in percentage of quota achievement were Holmes, Mercer and Champ-aign with Mahoning, Summit, Lucas and Franklin counties taking over the industrial counties.

1932 Governor's Action Said Void

COLUMBUS (AP)—An attorney general's ruling has declared void a certificate issued by the governor in 1932 purporting to restore the forfeited civil rights of a prisoner sentenced to life in Ohio Penitentiary.

The ruling said the certificate was not authorized by statute in the absence of a pardon or commutation of sentence.

The attorney general's office said the question arose because of claims by Russell Gotherman of Highland County that his civil rights had been restored.

Gotherman, who received a life sentence for second-degree murder, was paroled Nov. 2, 1931.

Hillsboro Race Fuss Filed In Highest Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hillsboro, Ohio, Board of Education has asked the Supreme Court to approve its integration plans for Negro and white pupils.

A U. S. Court of Appeals in Ohio disagreed with a federal district judge that the board was acting in good faith in its integration plan. Legally, the board is appealing the appellate court's decision.

While Hillsboro has operated segregated elementary schools for nearly 90 years, its junior and senior high schools are integrated and a few Negroes attend what were formerly all white elementary schools. Most Ohio public schools are integrated.

No white children attend the all-Negro Lincoln elementary school which the Hillsboro board says will be abandoned when its present building program is completed.

About 20-odd Negro youngsters

have continually sought admission to the former all-white schools, but have been turned away. They have been receiving private schooling provided by a Quaker organization.

The school board said it planned to begin integration in Hillsboro by next September.

This is the first case of its kind to reach the Supreme Court since that body's historic ruling on integrating school children. The Hillsboro board's action came yesterday.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Can you tell me what is the matter with me, and how to overcome it? I have been married seven years to Mike, who has never, in word or action, showed anything but complete love for me.

In the last month he has taken a very good job very far from here — a wonderful opportunity; something we've been working towards for a long time. I am to join him in six months; and meantime will see him once in that period.

As soon as Mike left, I began thinking maybe I never would hear from him again. I felt completely despondent and unloved. In two days I received a card mailed en route; then a long letter upon his arrival; and two more long, detailed loving letters within a week. And, on our anniversary, a telegram sending love.

Mike is embarking upon new, time-consuming, arduous work; yet, because I haven't had a letter this past week, I am completely despondent. I can just force myself through my work; and I am miserably unhappy and unable to enjoy anything. I have kept myself from telephoning him only by extreme self-control.

Many other times since we've been married I've had this horrible feeling. Once when we were separated for three days — and sometimes when he is right with me. I feel that he will stop loving me and that I will lose him. The strange thing is that I did not love him when we married; I married him in a moment of despair.

How can I build up freedom from this horrible feeling that engulfs me for no reason?

J. N.
DEAR J. N.: The missing link, as it were, in your marriage—the elusive deficiency that haunts you with threat of desolation—is your lack of wifely real love for Mike. And back of this deficiency is the primary cause of it, namely: your ingrained unconscious assumption that you are nobody.

Your anxieties in respect to

Mike are twofold. They issue from traumatic infantile dread of abandonment, carried over from early painful neglect and deprivation. And also they refer to your present inability to move towards life, that is, towards intimate interpersonal relationships—due to hangover fear of being rejected if you disclose yourself to be a humble, hopeful candidate for shared love experience.

Although outwardly you are exquisitely gentle, gracious and considerate, perhaps, inwardly you are frozen, defensive and unreachably remote. In your dealings with Mike, and that's why you feel so lost to him, as if the relationship were an illusion, when he's engrossed in other things.

For a scholarly guide to self-understanding, you might read Ashley Montagu's book "The Direction of Human Development" (Harpers). Or, to vitalize your love capacity, try "God's Reach" by Glenn Clark (Macalaster Park).

County Bond Sales Showing Decrease

Judge William D. Radcliff, chairman of the Pickaway County Savings Bonds Committee, today announced that Ohio sales Series E and H Savings Bonds in January amounted to just under $29 million. These sales are 16 percent below January of 1955 which was the highest first month since 1945.

January sales for Pickaway County were $47,031 for a decrease of $41,118 over the same month a year ago.

The County Chairman pointed out that while sales of E and H Bonds in 1955 reached the highest peak since the end of World War II, Ohio had received an $8 million increase in sales quota for

Navy's Balloon Testing Ends

Last Weather Gadget Down In Pacific

OPPAMA, Japan (AP)—The last of 20 huge weather balloons launched here was presumed down somewhere in the Pacific today, ending the U. S. Navy's current experiment in gathering upper-atmosphere information.

Once that information is integrated and coordinated, Navy officials said, it will be made available to all nations.

The 40-foot balloons carry instruments to record weather data at more than five miles above the earth and automatic radio equipment to radio that information to ground and ship listening posts.

A Navy spokesman said balloon No. 20, launched early Monday, had not been heard since early last night. At that time it was about 780 miles south of Midway Island in the Pacific. It is believed it went into the Pacific, which claimed several other of the gas-filled plastic bags.

Six landed in the United States after crossing the Pacific on the howling, high-speed "jet stream" wind which carried Japanese fire bomb balloons to Western Pacific slopes during World War II.

TWO MADE IT all the way across America and came down near Newfoundland. One crossed the Pacific, the American continent, the Atlantic and, after five days and eight hours, finally came down near the coast of Portugal.

One ended up somewhere in Communist Outer Mongolia, a big surprise to Navy officials here who expected all 20 to move toward the United States on the jet stream.

And three skirted up the Communist Siberian Coast before eventually veering eastward toward Alaska. One of those, No. 19, was last reported over the North Pole.

1956. This is in proportion to the national increase in sales goals.

Counties leading the state in percentage of quota achievement were Holmes, Mercer and Champaign with Mahoning, Summit, Lucas and Franklin counties taking over the industrial counties.

1932 Governor's Action Said Void

COLUMBUS (AP)—An attorney general's ruling has declared void a certificate issued by the governor in 1932 purporting to restore the forfeited civil rights of a prisoner sentenced to life in Ohio Penitentiary.

The ruling said the certificate was not authorized by statute in the absence of a pardon or commutation of sentence.

The attorney general's office said the question arose because of claims by Russell Gotherman of Highland County that his civil rights had been restored.

Gotherman, who received a life sentence for second-degree murder, was paroled Nov. 2, 1931.

Hillsboro Race Fuss Filed In Highest Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hillsboro, Ohio, Board of Education has asked the Supreme Court to approve its integration plans for Negro and white pupils.

A U. S. Court of Appeals in Ohio disagreed with a federal district judge that the board was acting in good faith in its integration plan. Legally, the board is appealing the appellate court's decision.

While Hillsboro has operated segregated elementary schools for nearly 90 years, its junior and senior high schools are integrated and a few Negroes attend what were formerly all white elementary schools. Most Ohio public schools are integrated.

No white children attend the all-Negro Lincoln elementary school which the Hillsboro board says will be abandoned when its present building program is completed.

About 20-odd Negro youngsters

have continually sought admission to the former all-white schools, but have been turned away. They have been receiving private schooling provided by a Quaker organization.

The school board said it planned to begin integration in Hillsboro by next September. This is the first case of its kind to reach the Supreme Court since that body's historic ruling on integrating school children. The Hillsboro board's action came yesterday.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's decision to run again has—because of his health—raised questions which will persist up to election day and, if he wins, beyond it.

The questions all revolve around the vice presidency and the possibility that Eisenhower, having had one heart attack, may suffer another which disables or kills him after his nomination or, if he wins, after his election.

The voters this year will be aware, more than in any election in history, that in voting for the Republican vice presidential candidate they may be choosing a president.

For the same reason Eisenhower knows that if he picks for his running mate a man unacceptable to a lot of voters, he himself may lose the election.

He has declined to say he wants Vice President Nixon to run with him again, although he again praised Nixon Wednesday.

Here are questions raised by Eisenhower's decision to seek re-election:

1. What happens if he should die—after the Republican convention nominates him and a vice presidential candidate—but before election day?

The Republican National Committee, if there's no time for another convention, can by itself name another presidential candidate or push the vice presidential candidate up into the No. 1 spot and name another man for vice president.

2. What happens if Eisenhower wins the election Nov. 6 but dies before the Electoral College meets Dec. 17 to cast its ballots formally naming him as the man who will take office as president?

There's no certain answer. This situation has never arisen before. This is the problem: On election day you do not vote directly for a president and vice president. You vote for a slate of party electors in each state. They then meet and elect a president. This has become a formality. The electors always vote for the two men who headed their party's ticket in the election. But, under the Constitution, they don't have to. They are legally free to vote for anyone.

What then would happen if Eisenhower died between Nov. 6 and Dec. 17? Probably the Republican National Committee would ask the Republican electors who won through Eisenhower—to elect the successful vice presidential candidate president. Then the committee could name someone else for vice president and ask the electors to approve him too.

It would be up to the electors to do that or do as they pleased.

3. What happens if Eisenhower having won the election and the Electoral College vote on Dec. 17, dies between that date and Jan. 20, inauguration day for the new President?

The Constitution's 20th Amendment provides that the vice president approved by the Electoral College would automatically take office as president; just as he would if the new president died.

4. What happens if Eisenhower, having been elected, took office Jan. 20 and after that date became so disabled that he could

Troop 52 Plans For Upcoming Scout-O-Rama

Boy Scout Troop 52 will use the theme "Find Your Way" at the upcoming Scout-O-Rama, according to an announcement by Scoutmaster William Wyatt.

The Scout-O-Rama, in which organizations from many regions gather, will be held March 17-18 at the Ohio State Fairgrounds in Columbus. Troop 52, in its exhibit, will show how a Scout can find and maintain his way by use of a compass or other means.

Tenderfoot investiture and a Court of Honor have been held for Troop 52 at Parents Night. Charles Rice, Roger Roebuck, Pete Embling and James Wellington earned their Tenderfoot rank. The honor court was held for Bruce Dresbach, Alex Cook, James Drumm, William Wyatt Jr. and Don Wolford.

The Wolf Patrol gave a first aid demonstration, showing the different bandages and also treatment for shock. The Tarzan Patrol gave a demonstration of various first aid carriers.

A DEMONSTRATION of knot ties was given by the Rattlesnake Patrol. Jeff Dunlap and Pete Embling were the demonstrators, with David Griner explaining their work.

The Cougar Patrol also presented a short demonstration.

Free Enterprise Campaign Urged

CLEVELAND (AP)—Arch N. Booth of Washington, executive vice president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, says business and industry must "make the American people so enthusiastic about free enterprise that they will not be tempted to trade it for any phase of socialism, controlism or the welfare state."

He spoke yesterday at a Chamber of Commerce session devoted to developing a better understanding of the business system.

not carry out his presidential duties?

That's a real puzzler, or could be. The Constitution says that when a president is too disabled to fulfill his duties, the vice president shall run the country, but as vice president, not as president. But the Constitution isn't clear on who decides when the President is so disabled the vice president must take over.

$1 Million Fire Hits Middletown Tank Factory

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Flames, spreading quickly from a sudden "flash fire" wrecked the plant of the Prior Products Inc., here last night with a loss, estimated by plant manager Arthur J. Doyle, at a million dollars.

The company manufactures truck gasoline tanks, auxiliary fuel tanks and other automobile equipment. It has headquarters at Dallas, Tex.

Only parts of two walls of the one-story brick and concrete block building were left standing.

The plant is in the north part of Middletown at the edge of a residential section but the flames did not spread to any nearby homes and no one was injured.

Doyle said the cause of the fire was not determined but that there was a "flash fire."

The plant employed about 85 persons. It has been in existence here for about 10 years.

Wanted Driver Just Disappears

CYNTHIANA, Ky. (AP)—A motorist just disappeared after twice running a school stop sign but his car was really lost.

Police Chief George Adams said Hanson P. Clifford disregarded the sign twice within a few minutes. A police cruiser abandoned a chase when Clifford's auto suddenly disappeared at a bridge.

Clifford explained when he reported to Police Court, where he paid fines totaling $70: The car had plunged over an embankment at the bridge and overturned several times. Clifford suffered only minor injuries but the auto was called a total loss.

The series is offered free to any TV station anywhere with only these provisions: They will be shown in specified sequence at any desired regular weekly time except an hour that might interfere with church attendance. There shall be no commercial in connection with them—not even a "Go to church."

The first drama, "An Eye for an Eye," was shown here last Saturday afternoon on the ABC network's local station. Distinguished by superior acting, it told

Free Enterprise Campaign Urged

CLEVELAND (AP)—Arch N. Booth of Washington, executive vice president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, says business and industry must "make the American people so enthusiastic about free enterprise that they will not be tempted to trade it for any phase of socialism, controlism or the welfare state."

He spoke yesterday at a Chamber of Commerce session devoted to developing a better understanding of the business system.

not carry out his presidential duties?

That's a real puzzler, or could be. The Constitution says that when a president is too disabled to fulfill his duties, the vice president shall run the country, but as vice president, not as president. But the Constitution isn't clear on who decides when the President is so disabled the vice president must take over.

Methodists Put Out Series Of Dramas For Television

NEW YORK (AP)—The Methodist Church has launched a series of dramatic television programs that should have a wider appeal than any TV dramas yet produced under the leadership of any church.

In both concept and execution the series of 13 films entitled "The Way" represents a significant step in organized religion's growing consciousness of the TV medium. The series shuns preaching, is nondenominational in its appeal, and is solely concerned with dramatizing various aspects of Christian principles of living.

The series is offered free to any TV station anywhere with only these provisions: They will be shown in specified sequence at any desired regular weekly time except an hour that might interfere with church attendance. There shall be no commercial in connection with them—not even a "Go to church."

The first drama, "An Eye for an Eye," was shown here last Saturday afternoon on the ABC network's local station. Distinguished by superior acting, it told

$1 Million Fire Hits Middletown Tank Factory

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Flames, spreading quickly from a sudden "flash fire" wrecked the plant of the Prior Products Inc., here last night with a loss, estimated by plant manager Arthur J. Doyle, at a million dollars.

The company manufactures truck gasoline tanks, auxiliary fuel tanks and other automobile equipment. It has headquarters at Dallas, Tex.

Only parts of two walls of the one-story brick and concrete block building were left standing.

The plant is in the north part of Middletown at the edge of a residential section but the flames did not spread to any nearby homes and no one was injured.

Doyle said the cause of the fire was not determined but that there was a "flash fire."

The plant employed about 85 persons. It has been in existence here for about 10 years.

Wanted Driver Just Disappears

CYNTHIANA, Ky. (AP)—A motorist just disappeared after twice running a school stop sign but his car was really lost.

Police Chief George Adams said Hanson P. Clifford disregarded the sign twice within a few minutes. A police cruiser abandoned a chase when Clifford's auto suddenly disappeared at a bridge.

Clifford explained when he reported to Police Court, where he paid fines totaling $70: The car had plunged over an embankment at the bridge and overturned several times. Clifford suffered only minor injuries but the auto was called a total loss.

Reaction On Ike's Decision Varies With Party Beliefs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Republicans have greeted President Eisenhower's second term announcement with cheers and thanksgiving while Democratic Chairman Paul Butler insists the people will not elect a "parttime President."
Leonard W. Hall, Butler's Republican counterpart, contented himself with a brief statement that "this is the best possible news for all Americans."
"It means a continuation of the peace, prosperity and progress of the Eisenhower Republican administration," Hall said.
Among Democrats, Adlai Stevenson, who is trying again for his party's presidential nomination, said in New York "it is fitting" that Eisenhower be the GOP candidate again. Stevenson said the "main issue will be the policies and record of the Eisenhower administration." He added:
"As the administration's chief architect and spokesman, Mr. Eisenhower will have to carry the burden of what will be a very vigorous campaign."
Sens. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, who also is seeking his party's presidential nomination, commented in Milwaukee:
"The campaign can now be waged on its merits without mudslinging, but with no punches pulled."
In Albany, Gov. Averell Harriman of New York said: "The lines are drawn on the record of his (Eisenhower's) administration for which he must now at last take full responsibility."

Harriman said the record at home was one of "surrender to the domination of one group — the big interests" and that abroad the administration's policies "have undermined our prestige and shaken the confidence in us of the people of the free world."
In Kansas City, former Democratic President Harry S. Truman said Eisenhower's decision to seek a second term will mean no change in his party's plans. Truman said: "We can beat anybody."
Sen. William F. Knowland of California, who had been preparing to make his own bid for the Republican nomination if Eisenhower did not run, predicted that Eisenhower will be renominated by acclamation at the San Francisco convention.
Knowland said "the campaign of 1956 will be a hard one and must not be taken for granted."
"I believe it is important to unify the party and to make it abundantly clear that all Republicans are necessary. An ample place should be made in the campaign for those who supported the late Sen. Taft in the pre-convention period in 1952 as well as those who supported Eisenhower."

Examiner James N. Main said the practice comes up in estates where there are no known heirs to contest disbursements.
His investigators found that in the estate of a machinist who died in 1948, an entry was made showing $3,833 sent to Russia for a "wife" of the deceased.
Investigation showed the Russian woman obtained a divorce from the machinist 20 years before.

Ohio 'Watch Dog' Committee Probes Ex-Publicity Expert

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An Ohio legislature "watch dog" committee has turned up some interesting facts about a former public relations consultant for the state department of mental hygiene and correction.
The consultant, J. Edward Farmer of Columbus, offered his services to a Cincinnati architectural firm awarded the contract for a three-million-dollar project at Longview State Hospital at Cincinnati, the committee learned Wednesday.
But, said Rep. Joseph E. Lady (R - Hardin) who disclosed the facts, the firm turned down Farmer's offer.
Lady said the information was given him and two other legislators by Russell S. Potter of the firm of Potter, Tyler, Martin and Roth, project architects. He named the other two lawmakers as State Sens. Raymond Hildebrand (R-Lucas) and Frank King (D-Lucas).
Dr. John D. Porterfield, state director of mental hygiene and correction, told the committee Farmer "in no way at all" helped recommend architects for state projects.
Farmer, head of Capital Services Associates, Columbus, was discharged from Porterfield's department last December on orders of Gov. Frank J. Lausche.
The governor told newsmen he had read published reports of "influence peddling" on Farmer's part and that he would not tolerate irregularities.
Porterfield said he had recommended Dan Carmichael, Columbus architect, for the Longview job, but he added he did not know

Danville Lambasts Jackson, 88-50

Unbeaten Ashville, who battles Johnstown at 7 p. m. Friday night at Capital University, is Pickaway County's sole survivor in the Class "B" Central District basketball tournament, as Jackson became a casualty of the tourney war Wednesday night.

The once-proud Wildcats were completely humbled by the sharp-shooting Danville Blue Devils, 88-50, at Capital.

Larry Cline, 5-11 forward for Danville, set this tournament's scoring mark by firing in 33 points, most of them from out beyond the foul line. Cline teamed up with 6-3 Glen Turney, who poured through 23 points, to pace the Knox County runner-up team's withering attack.

IN JOINING Pickaway's Pirates in the tourney graveyard, defenseless Jackson was completely out-caged by the taller Blue Devil cagers.

DANVILLE'S Big center, Turney, and Carl Workman, completely controlled both backboards to help stifle Jackson's offense.

Jackson's center, Johnny Maughmer, slowed by a bad ankle, was unable to snatch many rebounds, the same as his more physically fit teammates.

Jackson led once, 4-2, before the avalanche began. Danville's cagers, who now have a 15-6 mark, handcuffed Jackson's lackadaisical offense and built up a 22-11 first quarter lead.

The Blue Devils let up a little in the second period and meshed the nets for 18 more points to grab a 40-23 advantage by intermission.

Cline ripped the cords for 13 points in the third period to lead Danville's red-hot attack and pile up a 64-34 lead by the end of the frame.

AS ABOUT 160 hardy fans remained to the bitter end, the Knox Countians rammed through 24 more points in the fourth quarter to advance into the second round of the tourney.

Don Smith, playing his last hard-court game for Jackson, led the Wildcats in scoring with 19 markers. Eddie Longberry scored 14 points, most of them in the second half.

In the first game of the evening at Capital, Northwestern, Union County's champs, weathered a full court press and 39-point fourth quarter output by Iberia, to win 76-72.

In Wednesday night's games at Otterbein, Magnetic Springs improved its record to 15-7, by downing Midway, 67-62. Fredericktown rammed past Liberty Union, 95-74, in the second game of the night to up its season record to 21-1.

At 7 tonight, at Capital University, mighty Plain City (22-1) will tangle with Claridon (17-3), and in the second tilt, Danville collides with powerful Columbus St. Marys (18-1).

At Otterbein in tonight's opener at 7, unbeaten Marengo, with 21 victories will face a real test when it goes against Marysville (17-2). Marysville, second-seeded, is the team picked to be the most likely to succeed in the lower bracket. In the second game, Berne Union (20-1) has a date with Utica (12-9).

AAU Denies It Profited Off Of Santee

NEW YORK (AP)—The Amateur Athletic Union, in meeting out a lifetime ban to miler Wes Santee, did not, as has been suggested, get rid of a goose which laid it some golden eggs.

Santee, for all his drawing power at the gate, represented exactly 50 cents a year to the AAU, no more. That's the price of registration.

So said Dan Ferris, AAU secretary-treasurer, today in lashing back at reports that the AAU had used the great Kansas miler to fatten its coffers and then suspended him on the matter of a couple of thousand dollars' extra expense money.

"We don't receive a penny from these various invitation track meets," Ferris said. "They are promoted privately. Our only connection with them is to see that the competitors meet amateur regulations."

The AAU is the watchdog for Americas amateur athletics.

Some 70,000 athletes fall under the AAU jurisdiction. Prime exceptions are golf and tennis, which have their own ruling bodies.

Dayton Flyers Now Thankful They've Seen Last Of Green

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dayton's Flyers may have at long last seen the last of Si Green, Duquesne's brilliant All-America from Brooklyn, N. Y.

Green, always at his best against tough opposition, staged a sensational shooting exhibition last night to lead his underdog Iron shell, are to make and enforce rules and sanction events under its jurisdiction.

The AAU serves as an international sanctioning agent for most sports and, as such, must approve athletes which carry U. S. colors in the Olympic games.

Dukes to a thrilling 87-86 upset victory over Dayton.

A repeat performance of Green's 40-point spree is possible, however, since Duquesne and Dayton could meet in the National Invitational Tournament.

It was Green's easy layup with 10 seconds remaining that turned the tide for the defending NIT champs. That put Duquesne ahead 87-84. Dayton's Don Lane dropped in a field goal as the buzzer sounded.

The third-ranked Flyers, who dropped their third game in 25 starts, were paced by 7-foot center Bill Uhl who rang up 30 points. Dayton led 71-63 with the final period half gone, but the Dukes rallied, tying the score five times in the second half before clinching the contest.

At Oxford, Miami's Redskins held as much as a 21-point margin in the second half as they trounced the University of Cincinnati, 89-81.

Miami, ahead 47-34 at intermission, clicked off 10 quick points in the second half to take a 57-36 lead that decided the game.

Redskin Bill Kenyon with 25 and Cincinnati's Phil Wheeler with 23 paced their respective teams.

Down Louisville way, two other NIT participants collided, with Louisville emerging an 83-70 winner over Xavier. The Cardinals thus avenged an earlier season 40-point trouncing by Xavier.

Louisville, leading 42-34 at the half, was paced by Phil Rollins and Jim Morgan, each of whom collected 22 points. Morgan, held to a mere two points in the opening period, broke up the game with an amazing jump shot exhibition. Frank Tararon was high for Xavier with 20.

In loop affairs throughout Ohio, Ohio Wesleyan and Mount Union came out on top in Ohio Conference action—the Bishops rallying for a 78-77 victory over Heidelberg, and the Purple Raiders chalking up their 10th straight home court win, 81-57, over Wooster.

Ashland edged Bluffton, 62-61, in the Mid-Ohio League. Kent State ended its 10-1 season with a 93-91 Mid-American Conference victory over Bowling Green, and Case Tech surprised Akron, 77-62.

Pro Cagers Vie For Playoff Spots

NEW YORK (AP)—The battle for the second and third playoff spots in the western division of the National Basketball Assn. apparently is going right down to the wire with St. Louis and Minneapolis holding an edge over Rochester as of today.

Minneapolis' Lakers moved into a tie for second place with the idle Hawks of St. Louis last night, by defeating Syracuse 98-94 while Rochester lost a chance to close in when the Royals dropped an 86-81 decision to Philadelphia. The Royals, with six games left, trail St. Louis and Minneapolis by only 1 1/2 games but are behind four on the all important losing side.

Stuebenville Due To Test Central

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Steubenville Barons, winners of their last 21 games, and tough Central State of Wilberforce, will battle tonight for the Ohio title in the National Assn's Interscholastic athletics district basketball playoffs.

Steubenville whipped Defiance 92-75 and the Central State Marauders blasted host Baldwin-Wallace 100-81 in first round action last night. The champion will advance to the national meet in Kansas City.

Tigers Outlasted By South 71 To 60 Wednesday Night

CHS Again Eliminated In Class A Competition As Bulldogs Hard Pressed To Gain Victory

It was the same old story Wednesday night in Columbus. Circleville's Tigers were eliminated in the first round of District Class A basketball play as they stumbled before Columbus South 71 to 60.

The Tigers had no one to blame but themselves as they constantly allowed Bulldog forward George Devlin to stand all alone under the basket. The lanky 6'5" Devlin subsequently led the South cagers with 17 points.

South started off like a house on fire and bucketed 10 points before Dick Banks finally got the first CHS goal at 5:04. CHS never could overcome this margin throughout the rest of the game.

The Bulldogs' height was also a factor the Tigers could not cope with. This was borne out by the fact that CHS took only 51 shots to 80 for South.

BUT THE Tiger offense drew quite an ovation from the crowd. Time and again the smaller CHS boys would drive in and under the basket while the taller Bulldogs looked befuddled. But it was too little and too late.

Bobby Wellington nearly put on a repeat show of last year's Class A game with Columbus East. He drew gasps from the crowd as he pumped in a couple of long 40-foot shots that arched half way to the ceiling lights.

The Tigers kept themselves in the game throughout the first half. At intermission, South held only a 37-30 lead. But the Bulldogs blasted loose in the third period as they sank 15 points to only nine for Circleville.

Coach Red Courtney's boys had better shooting percentages in both field goal and free throw attempts than South. But the Tigers just did not get enough shots when they really counted.

CHS did not use anyone except regulars. It was thought that sophomores Jon Parcher, Mike Hosler and Bob Taylor might see action. But Courtney stuck with his varsity, substituting only with Walt Sieverts, Bill Johnson and Bob Fraser.

BANKS WAS the top scorer for Circleville with 16 points. Jim McConnell was close behind with 15 and Sieverts plunked 11.

Runnerup to Devlin for South

Lopez Confident Of His 'Old Men'

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—"I wouldn't trade my 'old men' for Casey's young ones," Cleveland Manager Al Lopez says of his veteran pitching staff.

The Indians manager referred to a crack by Casey Stengel, New York Yankee pilot, that the league champions were "much better off for pitchers than some other clubs that have old men back."

Except for Tommy Byrne, who came back last season at 35, the Yanks starters all are under 30.

The Indians starting quintet includes Bob Lemon, 35; Early Wynn, 36; Mike Garcia, 32; Art Houtteman, 28, and Herb Score, 22.

Ohio Woman Golfer Setting Hot Pace

ORMOND BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Barbara Romack and Fran Emerson waged battle today in the second round of the South Atlantic Women's tournament.

Mrs. Emerson, from Dayton, Ohio, pulled the first surprise of the tournament yesterday when she ousted medalist Marge Burns of Greensboro, N. C., 2 and 1.

Miss Romack, former national amateur champion from Sacramento, Calif., and two-time winner here, breezed past Mary McCutcheon of Jasper, Ala., 9 and 7.

Bobbin' Robin Freeman Again All-America

Frisco's Bill Russell Taps Voting With OSU Tiny Tot Rated Second

NEW YORK (AP)—Dominated by big Bill Russell and little Robin Freeman, five seniors from San Francisco, Ohio State, Duquesne, Furman and Holy Cross were named today to the 1956 Associated Press collegiate all-American basketball team.

Selected with Russell and Freeman by a vote of 329 sportswriters and broadcasters were Shugart (SI) Green of Duquesne, Darrell Floyd of Furman and Tom Heinsohn of Holy Cross, Russell, Freeman and Floyd are repeaters from the 1955 second team and Heinsohn from the 1955 third team.

The 6-10 Russell, who led the Don's enroute to their string of 48 straight victories, received 308 first team votes and seven 2nd team marks for a total of 1,554 points. Freeman, only 5-11 but one of the nation's best shooters, polled 233 first and 46 seconds for 1,257 points.

Green was third in the voting with 861 points on 153 first and 48 seconds followed by Floyd with 813 on 124-94 and Heinsohn with 624 on 98-82.

Ronnie Shavlik, North Carolina State star who fractured his wrist last Saturday; K. C. Jones, Russell's teammate at San Francisco; Rod (Hot Rod) Hundley of West Virginia; Len Rosenbluth of North Carolina and 7 ft. Bill Uhl of Dayton were picked as a second team.

George Washington's Joe Holup; Julius McCoy of Michigan State; Bill Ridley of Illinois; Bob Burrow of Kentucky and Willie Naulls of UCLA make up a third team.

Charley Tyra of Louisville; Paul Judson of Illinois; Hal Lear of Temple; Morris Taft of UCLA and Vic Molodet of North Carolina State head an honorable mention list of 21. The 15 on the first three teams will receive certificates from The Associated Press.

Others from the Midwest named to the honorable list included Terry Rand, Marquette; Gary Thompson, Iowa State, and Carl Cain and Bill Logan of Iowa.

The feats of Russell, known as the stuffer, are so well-known they hardly need any repeating. Virtually unknown a year ago he leaped into the limelight with his uncanny ability on the court to lead the Dons to the NCAA championship and their victory string of 48 straight. This year he has done even better.

The repeat selections of Freeman and Floyd, who have battled for the major college individual scoring lead all season, vindicates those who voted for them in 1955. They were regarded in some quarters as only "shooters." This year, as marked men, they did well under pressure.

Chances Slim For Freeman To Top List
NEW YORK (AP)—Robin Freeman's chances of beating Furman's Darrell Floyd out of the major college individual basketball scoring championship are slim but the Ohio State all-America could well become the third highest point maker in history.

NCAA service bureau statistics, released today and including games through Feb. 27, show Floyd in first place with an average of 33.5 points per game on 872 in 26 games. Freeman has a 32.4 average with 647 markers in 20 contests.

Floyd has finished his regular season but has the possibility of playing from one to three more games in the Southern Conference tournament starting today. Freeman winds up his career against Michigan State on Saturday and Minnesota on Monday.

Redlegs Facing Same Old Problem
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs, late starters in the business of baseball spring training, get underway today and it generally was agreed they face the same old problem—pitching.

Of course, if quantity has anything to do with it, Manager Birdie Tebbets may solve the pitching problem this year. Eighteen of the 37 players on the training roster are hurlers.

Tebbetts has indicated he believes he can figure on Joe Nuxhall, Art Fowler and Johnny Klippstein as capable starters with Hershel Freeman as top relief.

Chances Slim For Freeman To Top List

NEW YORK (AP)—Robin Freeman's chances of beating Furman's Darrell Floyd out of the major college individual basketball scoring championship are slim but the Ohio State all-America could well become the third highest point maker in history.

NCAA service bureau statistics, released today and including games through Feb. 27, show Floyd in first place with an average of 33.5 points per game on 872 in 26 games. Freeman has a 32.4 average with 647 markers in 20 contests.

Floyd has finished his regular season but has the possibility of playing from one to three more games in the Southern Conference tournament starting today. Freeman winds up his career against Michigan State on Saturday and Minnesota on Monday.

Redlegs Facing Same Old Problem
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs, late starters in the business of baseball spring training, get underway today and it generally was agreed they face the same old problem—pitching.

Of course, if quantity has anything to do with it, Manager Birdie Tebbets may solve the pitching problem this year. Eighteen of the 37 players on the training roster are hurlers.

Tebbetts has indicated he believes he can figure on Joe Nuxhall, Art Fowler and Johnny Klippstein as capable starters with Hershel Freeman as top relief.
